Capitalism and Its Critics John Cassidy, 2025-05-13 A Financial Times Most Anticipated Book of 2025 A sweeping dramatic history of capitalism as seen through the eyes of its fiercest critics At a time when artificial intelligence climate change inequality trade wars and a right wing populist backlash to globalization are raising fundamental questions about the economic system Capitalism and Its Critics provides a kaleidoscopic history of global capitalism from the East India Company and Industrial Revolution to the digital revolution But here John Cassidy a staff writer at The New Yorker and a Pulitzer Prize finalist adopts a bold new approach he tells the story through the eyes of the system's critics From the English Luddites who rebelled against early factory automation to communists in Germany and Russia in the early twentieth century to the Latin American dependistas the international Wages for Housework campaign of the 1970s and the modern degrowth movement the absorbing narrative traverses the globe It visits with familiar names Smith Marx Luxemburg Keynes Polanyi but also focuses on many less familiar figures including Flora Tristan the French proponent of a universal labor union Thomas Carlyle the conservative prophet of the moral depredations of the market John Hobson the original theorist of imperialism J C Kumarappa the Indian exponent of Gandhian economics Eric Williams the Trinidadian author of a famous thesis on slavery and capitalism Joan Robinson the Cambridge economist and critic of Keynes and Samir Amin the leftist French Egyptian economist and analyst of globalization Blending rich biography panoramic history and lively exploration of economic theories Capitalism and Its Critics is true big history that illuminates the deep roots of many of the most urgent issues of our time

Flora Tristan, a Forerunner Woman Magda Portal, 2012-05-31 This book is in homage to Flora Tristan the great pioneer of the first years of the 19th century She was more than the first feminist she was the pioneer of the worker's demands against the injustice of the factories' owners in the industrialization era She also emphasized a review of the tremendous injustices weighing down upon women and she demanded the elimination of laws that diminished women by making them permanently dependent on men and that subjected women to infamous medieval conditions that are endorsed by tradition and religion Flora flourished as a true torch for illuminating awareness during the first half of her century until now She did so as a real woman and without hating men She is one of the highest ranking social fighters at the forefront of women's liberation She suffered incomprehension of the society She was shooting by a jealous husband and in addition she suffered the greedy behavior of her uncle when she tried to recover her inheritance in Peru Flora wrote books asking the UNION of the movement workers and the international union of them She wrote severe criticism to the British society in Promenades dans London and she wrote hard criticism to the slave use in Peru

Home and its Dislocations in Nineteenth-Century France Suzanne Nash, 1993-08-31 The nineteenth century witnessed an unprecedented social restructuring that disrupted traditional notions of people and place country and city private and public spheres The break with the old order and the entry into the industrial age was most dramatically played out in France with the growth of a new urban middle class under the July monarchy and the rebuilding of Paris by Haussmann under the Second Empire The personal immediate and radical effects of these changes produced an altered conception of the meaning of home and a homeland Focusing primarily on mid nineteenth century France these essays by noted literary critics offer fascinating new accounts of the relationship between the social history of home and homelessness and the imaginative expressions of the age This probing interdisciplinary approach combining theoretical sophistication with historical detail addresses the fundamental importance of class and gender to the modern history of homelessness Its provocative readings of well known texts provide a model of cultural studies at its best and most serious

Flora Tristan Sandra Dijkstra,2019-07-23 A new edition of an influential biography of the early Victorian socialist feminist writer Flora Tristan Active in the 1830s and 1840s Flora Tristan is best known for her book Workers Union an account of the conditions of women and workers in Peru London Paris and the provinces of France Regarded as something of a pariah she was one of the first women radicals to draw clear connections between the plight of disaffected workers and powerless women Her version of socialism has been regarded as leading towards Marx Sandra Dijkstra aims to paint a clear picture of Tristan as a class and gender conscious women writer in a transitional historical period and to demonstrate her influence on Marxism

Beyond WEIRD: Psychobiography in Times of Transcultural and Transdisciplinary Perspectives Claude-Hélène Mayer,Roelf van Niekerk,Paul J.P. Fouché,Joseph G. Ponterotto,2023-05-27 This volume presents psychobiographical research in non WEIRD Western Educated Industrialized Rich and Democratic contexts and samples focusing on culture transcultural and transdisciplinary work It creates a platform for researchers scholars and scientists from diverse backgrounds to put forth new theoretical and methodological stances in psychobiography thereby making the field more inclusive diverse and equitable The chapters in this volume investigate the role of context across the life course of non WEIRD psychological subjects as well as the interplay between them and their environments across the life span They further elucidate cognitive affective and behavioural aspects of individuals with non WEIRD backgrounds The volume provides a broad and at the same time in depth perspective into psychobiography beyond the usual contexts and therefore has new and original learnings to offer across disciplines and cultures It is a breakthrough in terms of its transcultural and transdisciplinary insights into lives lived in different contexts in the world Every person is in certain respects a like all other persons b like some other persons c like no other persons This book is a challenging and fascinating exploration of extending psychobiography beyond its origins in Europe and America to women and men of different races and social and economic classes from Africa Asia and around the world At its best psychobiography can increase people s awareness of their own subjective experience and that of others contributing to movements for social cultural and political change William McKinley Runyan Professor Emeritus Professor of the Graduate School School of Social Welfare U of California Berkeley Beyond Weird is beyond needed The book triumphantly fills the gap created by a dearth of studies of people other than Western educated European and American men James William Anderson PhD Professor of Clinical Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences Northwestern University Chicago

Walking the Victorian Streets Deborah Epstein Nord, 2018-09-05 Literary traditions of urban description in the nineteenth century revolve around the figure of the stroller a man who navigates and observes the city streets with impunity Whether the stroller appears as fictional character literary persona or the nameless omnipresent narrator of panoramic fiction he casts the woman of the streets in a distinctive role She functions at times as a double for the walker s marginal and alienated self and at others as connector and contaminant carrier of the literal and symbolic diseases of modern urban life In Walking the Victorian Streets Deborah Epstein Nord explores the way in which the female figure is used as a marker for social suffering poverty and contagion in texts by De Quincey Lamb Pierce Egan and Dickens What then of the female walker and urban chronicler While the male spectator enjoyed the ability to see without being seen the female stroller struggled to transcend her role as urban spectacle and her association with sexual transgression In novels nonfiction and poetry by Elizabeth Gaskell¹ Flora Tristan Margaret Harkness Amy Levy Maud Pember Reeves Beatrice Webb Helen Bosanquet and others Nord locates the tensions felt by the female spectator conscious of herself as both observer and observed Finally Walking the Victorian Streets considers the legacy of urban rambling and the uses of incognito in twentieth century texts by George Orwell and Virginia Woolf

French Women Writers Eva Martin Sartori, Dorothy Wynne Zimmerman, 1994-01-01 Marie de France Mme De S vign and Mme De Lafayette achieved international reputations during periods when women in other European countries were able to write only letters translations religious tracts and miscellaneous fragments There were obstacles but French women writers were more or less sustained and empowered by the French culture Often unconventional in their personal lives and occupied with careers besides writing as educators painters actresses preachers salon hostesses labor organizers these women did not wait for Simone de Beauvoir to tell them to make existential choices and have projects in the world French Women Writers describes the lives and careers of fifty two literary figures from the twelfth century to the late twentieth All the contributors are recognized authorities Some of their subjects like Colette and George Sand are celebrated and others are just now gaining critical notice From Christine de Pizan and Marguerite de Navarre to Rachilde and H l _ne Cixous from Louise Labe to Marguerite Duras these women speak through the centuries to issues of gender sexuality and language French Women Writers now becomes widely available in this Bison Book edition
