A Widows Walk:

Widow's Walk Ronda Chervin,1998 A Widow's Walk is a result of Ronda Chervin's quest for spiritual answers to the struggles of widowhood. It draws on the lives of more than 40 widow saints and encourages fellow widows to open new vistas and look for new opportunities to serve Christ.

A Widow's Walk Lynee A. Davis,2011-04-05 Lynee A. Davis has carved a new life and identity out of the ashes of her husband's untimely death. She is a Personal Trainer and Fitness Instructor on a mission to educate others on the importance of physical fitness. Currently, she is pursuing a California Teaching Credential in Physical Education to teach in the public school system. Lynee is shockingly honest as she chronicles her experiences as a widow living on the edge of reality. As she questions the meaning of life and her faith in God, she discovers that it's faith that gives her purpose and the strength to continue on the journey. Fasten your seat belts and ride an emotional roller coaster where nothing is off limits. Hear the thoughts, feel the pain, and rejoice over the victories of A Widow's Walk.

A Widow's Walk Marian Fontana,2011-12-13 On September 11, I dropped my son off at his second full day of kindergarten. The sky was so blue it looked as if it had been ironed. I crossed the street, ordered coffee, and sat to wait for my husband to meet me. It was our eighth wedding anniversary, and Dave and I were about to begin a new chapter in our seventeen years together. Sipping coffee, I watched as a line of thick black smoke crept across the sky from Manhattan, oblivious to the fact that my life was about to change forever. On September 11, 2001, Marian Fontana lost her husband, Dave, a firefighter from the elite Squad 1 in Brooklyn in the World Trade Center attack. A Widow's Walk begins that fateful morning when Marian, a playwright and comedienne, became a widow, a single mother, and an unlikely activist. Two weeks after 9/11, the city attempted to close Squad 1, which had suffered the loss of twelve men. Known for her feisty spirit and passionate loyalty, Marian, who was still reeling from her profound loss, began to mobilize the neighborhood to keep the firehouse open. From this unlikely platform, the 9/11 Widows and Victims Families Association grew. Over the next twelve months, Marian struggled with the tragedy's endless ripple effects. From the minute and deeply personal, she wonders who will play Star Wars with her son, Aidan, and carry him on his shoulders to the collective, she works to get families and widows necessary information about the recovery effort and attends private meetings with Governor Pataki, Mayor Giuliani, Senator Clinton, and Mayor Bloomberg. Through it all, Marian's irrepressible humor is her best armor, as well as evidence of her buoyant strength. Written with great heart and humanity, A Widow's Walk is a timely opportunity for remembrance and a timeless testament to love's loss and the resilience of the human spirit.
