A Woman Like Her Sanam Maher, 2020-01-28 A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK OF 2020 An exemplary work of investigative journalism Parul Sehgal The New York Times The murder of a Pakistani social media star exposes a culture divided between accelerating modernity and imposed traditional values and the tragedy of those caught in the middle In 2016 Pakistan's first social media celebrity Qandeel Baloch was murdered in a suspected honor killing Her death quickly became a media sensation It was both devastatingly routine and breathtakingly brutal and in a new media landscape it couldn't be ignored Qandeel had courted attention and outrage with a talent for self promotion that earned her comparisons to Kim Kardashian and made her the constant victim of harassment and death threats Social media and reality television exist uneasily alongside honor killings and forced marriages in a rapidly if unevenly modernizing Pakistan and Qandeel Baloch's story became emblematic of the cultural divide In this definitive and up to date account Sanam Maher reconstructs the story of Qandeel's life and explores the depth and range of her legacy from her impoverished hometown rankled by her infamy to the aspiring fashion models who follow her footsteps to the Internet activists resisting the same vicious online misogyny she faced Maher depicts a society at a crossroads where women serve as an easy scapegoat for its anxieties and dislocations and teases apart the intrigue and myth making of the Qandeel Baloch story to restore the humanity of the woman at its center

Would Jesus Date A Woman Like Me? Brian Bolden, 2015-02-11 Throughout the centuries frustration disappointment and despair on both sides has created a great divide between black women and black men In the world of relationships it has become increasingly difficult for black women to make an emotional spiritual and psychological connection with black men For many women they don't even know how to begin to put on a different hat and often find themselves saying Why can't I find a good black man The truth of the matter is many black women are sinking and drowning according to many black men On the other side of the spectrum there are black men who also have a considerable amount of scar tissue to deal with not the least of which has been black women who are deceitful disrespectful high maintenance materialistic gold diggers with get paid mentalities The end result is that many black men have become frustrated with black women and have also chosen to cross color lines in unbelievably large numbers For those black men having a strong Nubian queen by their side has become nothing more than a pipe dream they used to have For them dating outside their race is no longer taboo and no longer creates the innate feeling of betraying black women Sadly a lot of black men all over the country have lost love and respect for many black women A lot of black men feel many black women have no idea how to love them care for them or nurture their men They no longer believe that black women are good homemakers nor can they keep a peaceful home This is an epidemic that has spread all over America It is my sincere belief that the thoughts and ideas outlined in my book will help answer numerous questions with which black women continue to struggle regarding their relationships with men particularly black American men such as Why will he bed me but not wed me Why have many black women lost the love and respect of black men Why are black men continuing to cross the fence in alarming numbers Why are black men becoming more hesitant to approach black women Are black men really intimidated by successful black women Why are so many black men disappointed discouraged and frustrated with many black women Why do many black men see black women as too difficult and too complicated to deal with Why are some black men making a vow to never date or marry another black woman ever again Why are many black women hitting home runs in their careers but striking out in their relationships and marriages These are some of the questions that are answered in this book This is why it was so important for me to write this book I want to inform black women in America what they need to do to help restore the faith of good quality black men I want black women to understand that I am writing this book as a wake up call If I do my job well perhaps these words will sufficiently energize the mind heart and soul of the amazing creation God called woman to stimulate positive behavioral change in her or at least provoke a little thought Now I know I m treading on thin ice here but trust me when I say this book is not about bashing black women in America It s a book about reality and truth More often than not most of us do not like to hear the truth because it forces us to take a good look at ourselves blemishes and all The old adage The truth hurts could certainly apply here However another old adage is also applicable The truth shall set you free By writing this book I truly hope to make it easier for black men and woman to come together as one I want black women to understand that just because many black men have lost faith doesn t mean that we have given up on you The reality is that sometimes we need to be challenged and this book will definitely challenge many black women in America to take an introspective look at themselves Keywords African American Women Black Women Woman Black Men Relationship Dating Marriage Sex Self Help Ladies, How to Keep Your Man from a Woman Like Me! Roar Like a Woman Natalie Ritchie, 2018-06-05

Are you a feminist Or are you a masculinist It s a trick question they re the same thing says mother of two and parenting magazine journalist Natalie Ritchie Five decades after feminism began women are trapped in a masculinist dead end Feminists claim to be women s friend but their actions shout the opposite Feminism cheerleads a woman s man identical career but sneers at her work as mother and housewife It pushes women into nine to five jobs designed for a man with a 24 7 wife at home but fails to shape jobs around the domestic workload of the working woman who is also that 24 7 wife It exhorts women to ape men s working style and shuns development of a truly womanly working style It celebrates a woman s leadership that copies a man s leadership in the economy and politics but blindsides a woman s more profound leadership outside the workplace as the one who shapes the souls of the next generation and who lives loves and spreads the joy in our homes friendship circles and communities Feminists seek a 50 50 gender equal world in which one hundred percent of women do what one hundred percent of men do ensuring women s interests contributions and priorities are eradicated In its bid to bust the patriarchy feminism has become the patriarchy After a wide ranging career in public relations and writing as a mother and from her most recent role as features editor at a national parenting magazine Natalie Ritchie shows feminism
