Commandments John Peterson,G. K. Chesterton,2017-05-01 This unique collection of Father Brown mysteries links tales by G K Chesterton with the Ten Commandments The connection is often surprising however for the criminal is not necessarily the worst sinner in the story nor is his crime necessarily the worst offense When Chesterton created the character of Father Brown he brought a new dimension to mystery stories the distinction between crime and sin As the priest detective applies his powers of observation to solve a case he picks up clues about other offenses such as those against the Sabbath or one s parents Father Brown s main concern is not the laws of the State but the Commandments of God As Dorothy Sayers once wrote G K Chesterton was the first man of our time to introduce the great name of God into a detective story to enlarge the boundaries of the detective story by making it deal with death and real wickedness and real that is to say divine judgment This edition includes footnotes not available in other versions which help to clarify the literary and historical allusions made by Father Brown It is based on the texts of Chesterton s original editions for assurance of authenticity and is set in easily readable type John Peterson is the world s greatest expert on Chesterton s famous priest detective His presentation of these particular Father Brown stories only adds to their craftiness and profundity Dale Ahlquist President American Chesterton Society A Touch of Voodoo Dean Buchmeyer,Peter Gardner,2000-10-02 The story is set in the days before the revolution that deposed Baby Doc and makes several swings between Haiti under the corrupt and repressive military rule and the small Texas town of Longbottom A U S medical team comprising four physicians a black dentist Dr Bailey and two nurses Zulla also black and Pam fly to Haiti under the leadership of Dr Bone to conduct free clinics as a start of a help the poor program During the stopover in Port au Prince they witness a rada mild voodoo ceremony meet shady Minister of Health de Villeneuve co sponser of the program and discover that half their seperately medical supplies are missing The team travels by minivan though the bleak countryside and over the mountains to the northern city of Cap Haitian their base for the clinics driven by the 20 year old live wire Marcel who has an important part to play in the story Bone has a hard time maintaining harmony among his temperamental fellow physicians one of whom a married man falls for Pam The team is put up at the once prosperous hotel owned by a German expatriot Hans Boch The first and third clinics are conducted in the church of Reverend Purdy something of a stufed shirt who has a severely depressed wife and in the course of his stay Bone befriends Judy Cawthorn who is doing research on voodoo and Father Morissot a Catholic priest who enlists Bone s aide in saving the life of a certain Henri who has been placed under a death curse by the powerful and slightly crazed houngan or head voodoo priest Chauvelin. During the second clinic held in a small outlying school church, Bone receives a threat from a Chauvelin henchman and on his way back to Cap-Haitien glimpses a zombie. Unfoward events occur. Bone is nearly struck by a speeding car carelessly driving a warning and one morning comes upon signs of a voodoo curse outside his door. Bailey, his interest piqued by voodoo, visits the home of Mambo Lebourg, a local voodoo priestess and finds evidence of the missing medical supplies. Back in Longbottom, Bone's friend Hal, owner of a furniture store as well as a Justice of the Peace and the town's undertaker, learns that Zula's husband Jake has seemingly disappeared. Jake spied on by town gossip Aunt Povey has been having a fling with a beautician Gladys who has drug connections as Jake once had Hal and his wife have a wayward adopted son who later features in the plot. In Cap-Haitien de Villeneuve goes to Lebourg's house to meet Chauvelin and receive from him half the money from the black market sale of the stolen medical supplies. Chauvelin, who has put a death curse on a woman who offended him, kidnaps Bailey and arranges to release Bailey if Bone will not undertake to interfere with the curse. Bone is dramatically relieved of his dilemma by Marcel and both rescue Bailey while a captive Bailey had found a phial of zombie powder and takes it out of curiosity. Home in Longbottom and reconciled with Jake, Zula persuades members of her Ebony social club to participate in a trial rada voodoo ceremony with largely comic results. Morissot calls Bone to say Henri has been poisoned by Chauvelin and Bone flies back to Cap-Haitien to try and protect the priest now under threats himself and see that Chauvelin is brought to justice. In a remote village Chauvelin is about to perform a petro sinister voodoo ceremony at which he will sacrifice a baby. Bone goes there with Marcel and Lebourg's marksman son Claude. The baby is saved but Chauvelin escapes later to be shot by Claude. Bone learns Bailey has become obsessed with the beautiful Zula and tries to seduce her but is repulsed.
