Inventions such as steam power lithography photography electricity motor cars aviation and cheaper color printing all contributed to a new exuberance about color. Available pigments and colored products made possible by new technologies industrial manufacturing commercialization and urbanization also greatly increased as did illustrated printed literature for the mass market. Color both literally and metaphorically was splashed around and became an expressive tool for artists designers and writers. Color shapes an individual's experience of the world and also how society gives particular spaces objects and moments meaning. The 6 volume set of the Cultural History of Color examines how color has been created traded used and interpreted over the last 5000 years. The themes covered in each volume are color philosophy and science color technology and trade power and identity religion and ritual body and clothing language and psychology literature and the performing arts art architecture and interiors and artefacts. Alexandra Loske is Curator at the Royal Pavilion and Museums Brighton UK. Volume 5 in the Cultural History of Color set. General Editors Carole P Biggam and Kirsten Wolf.
