Best In Leisure Public Architecture:

The Best in Leisure and Public Architecture Alan Phillips, 1993 Drawing on the collective talents of a world wide selection of architects and designers the visual examples shown in this book highlight the diversity of approaches that can now be seen in leisure spaces all over the world Among the places featured are the Walt Disney World Swan Hotel in Florida the Square in Tallaght County Dublin the Subterania Club in London the Royal International Eisteddfod Pavillion in Clwyd Parc de la Villette in Paris and the Staatsgalerie Extension in Stuttgart

The Best in Leisure and Public Architecture Alan Phillips, 1993

Torkildsen's Sport and Leisure Management George Torkildsen, HLM50+ Towards a Social Architecture Tony Monk, 2017-07-06 Since its sudden and dramatic formation upon winning the competition to design Paisley Civic Centre in 1963 Hutchison Locke and Monk HLM Architects has consistently served and adapted to the changing requirements of Britain's welfare state and has instinctively dedicated its professional services to community architecture Conceived from the perspective of founding partner Tony Monk this book reveals the inside story of how the partnership has grown over 50 years to become a leading UK national practice It sets out the early influences and progressive design philosophy of HLM Architects and analyses how they developed their design ethos from late modern through contextual post modern architectural styles by the early 1980s and then matured into producing its own contemporary designs explaining why these changes took place over that period As well as reflecting the transformations in the social and political landscapes and in aesthetic approaches it also inevitably records the changing social history of the architectural profession from labour intensive manual presentations using drafting pens and drawing boards through to the slick mass produced computer modelling that accompanied the digital revolution and the fundamental adjustments needed to meet the realities of managing an efficient modern commercial business Working with the HLM Board the authoritative contributors are Directors who have used their knowledge and experience in responding to government legislation with innovative architectural solutions in their specialist fields HLM Chairman Christopher Liddle is a leading exponent of defence and custodial procurement alongside Caroline Buckingham in education and Leslie Welch in healthcare Their award winning projects now help formulate current policy The critical Introduction by Dr Edward Denison re-examines the practice's philosophy and contribution to the evolving welfare state during the second half of the twentieth century The conclusion is a perceptive assessment of the future direction of the architectural profession and a statement of HLM's continuing commitment to improving our society The complex relationships described shed new light on previous architectural theories and in doing so this book adds to the knowledge of post war British architecture

Skidmore, Owings & Merrill Skidmore, Owings & Merrill, 1995 THE MASTER ARCHITECT SERIES is a series of monographs on some of the greatest architects and architectural firms of our time Each monograph will contain 256 pages displaying several hundred color photographs drawings sketches and renderings Although primarily a pictorial essay the books will contain selected projects described in concise detail along with a critique or overview of the firm a resume of the partners and a comprehensive bibliography

Leisure and Recreation Management George Torkildsen, 2005 Leisure and Recreation Management is essential reading for anyone interested in exploring both the theory and the practicalities of managing leisure and recreational facilities

The Architecture and Landscape of Health Julie Collins, 2020-03-24 The Architecture and Landscape of Health explores buildings and landscapes that were designed to treat or prevent disease in the era before pharmaceuticals and biomedicine emerged as first line treatments Written from an architectural perspective it examines the historical relationship between health and place through the emergence of dedicated therapeutic building types from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century a time when the environment was viewed as integral to the health of both the individual and the population This book provides an overview of ideas surrounding health and place and their impact on architecture and designed landscapes Different therapeutic buildings and places are examined including public parks asylums sanatoria leprosaria quarantine stations public baths and healthy homes Each chapter outlines the medical context common therapies a history of buildings designed in response to these and an examination of how such places were perceived to have functioned Illustrated using geographically and temporally diverse examples the book includes designs drawn from locations across the world including Europe the Americas Africa Australia and Asia The Architecture and Landscape of Health identifies and examines moments in the conversation between health and design and is a timely look back on the resultant buildings and places offering insights which could inform the design of therapeutic places of the future An ideal read for researchers academics and upper level postgraduate students interested in architecture and architectural history particularly relating to healthcare design and medical history
