Budgeting, Auditing, & Evaluation Andrew Gray, Bob Segsworth, 2002 Budgeting, Auditing, and Evaluation Andrew Gray, 2023-09-13 As governments the world over work to sustain public policy and develop much needed policy initiatives there is an increasing need for better budgetary management and sound evaluation of both past and prospective policies The contributors focus on the important links between budgeting auditing and policy evaluation

The International Handbook of Public Financial Management Richard Allen, Richard Hemming, B. Potter, 2013-08-15 The Handbook is a virtual encyclopedia of public financial management written by topmost experts many with a background in the IMF and World Bank It provides the first comprehensive guide to the subject that has been published in more than ten years The book is aimed at a broad audience of academics students government officials development agencies and practitioners It covers both bread and butter topics such as the macroeconomic and legal framework for budgeting budget preparation and execution procurement accounting reporting audit and oversight as well as specialist subjects such as government payroll systems local government finance fiscal transparency the management of fiscal risks sovereign wealth funds the management of state owned enterprises and political economy aspects of budgeting The book sets out numerous examples and case studies describing good practice in public financial management and is highly relevant for use in both advanced and developing countries

International Atlas of Evaluation Jan-Eric Furubo, Ray C. Rist, Rolf Sandahl, The history development and future directions of evaluation in various European and Asian countries are described and examined Chapter topics include international organizations or associations that influence this global direction Business Horizon Evaluation of public policy has changed considerably in the past decade This is especially true in Europe where evaluation is now an institutional part of public sector governance but it is also characteristic of other parts of the world The International Atlas of Evaluation describes individual country as well as global trends and developments in the application and impact of evaluation It also explains underlying forces affecting the contour of evaluation in different national contexts and their consequences for the diffusion of evaluation The International Atlas of Evaluation describes and examines the history development and future directions of evaluation in twenty two countries Australia Canada China Denmark Finland France Germany Switzerland Ireland Israel Italy Japan Korea the Netherlands New Zealand Norway Spain Sweden Switzerland Zimbabwe the United Kingdom and the United States It includes chapters on international organizations or associations that heavily influence the global direction of evaluation the European Union the World Bank and Development Assistance Evaluation The volume includes a historical overview of supply and demand in relation to evaluation shifts in institutional settings university programs and other sources of training descriptions of its applications in the executive and legislative branches of government and observations on the status and future of national systems of evaluation The Atlas explores whether those countries where evaluation took off some years ago are expanding its use or whether its development has stabilized or even decreased It explores factors supporting the development of evaluation in a number of developing countries This volume in the Comparative Policy Analysis series is an essential tool for policy makers government officials and scholars interested in the contemporary status of evaluation Jan Eric Furubo is head of the Secretariat for Strategic Analyses in the National Audit Office in Sweden Ray C Rist is a senior evaluation officer with the Operations Evaluation Department of the World Bank He has held senior positions in both the legislative and executive branches of the United States government as well as teaching positions at Cornell University The John Hopkins University and George Washington University Rolf Sandahl is an expert in evaluation at the National Financial Management Authority in Sweden and author of many books and articles in the area of policy instruments results analysis and management by results

Collaboration in Public Services Bill Jenkins, 2017-10-19 The International Group for Policy and Program Evaluation INTEVAL serves as a forum for scholars and practitioners of public policy to discuss ideas and developments as a community dedicated to enhancing the contribution of evaluation to government From the group's studies has emerged a concern with the impact of public management reforms Collaboration in Public Services examines collaboration in the delivery of public policies and identifies the challenges for policy and program evaluation Written by a mix of academics program managers evaluators and auditors this volume explores the forms and challenges of collaboration in different national contexts Chapter 1 introduces the notion and manifestations of collaboration and discusses emerging issues Chapter 2 examines partnerships and networks of public service delivery Chapter 3 drawing on Dutch and British data reveals the QUANGO as both a collaborative end and means Chapter 4 analyzes Israel's push to enhance collaboration with voluntary organizations Chapter 5 examines the Canadian and Danish experiences Chapter 6 suggests that the creation of markets to improve quality has not been totally successful at least in Nordic countries Chapter 7 suggests that traditional service values such as trust and parliamentary accountability are challenged by the complexity of collaboration but using illustrations from Canada and other OECD countries argues that results based governance can increase trust flexibility and empowerment Chapter 8 demonstrates from Dutch and Canadian experiences that auditor responses to collaborative delivery tend to overlook traditional roles as guardians of accountability on behalf of parliaments Chapter 9 deliberates the efficacy of programs involving multiple partners Chapter 10 discusses the lessons and challenges of evaluation and collaborative government

Reflections on the Greek Sovereign Debt Crisis Aristidis Bitzenis,Vasileios A. Vlachos,Ioannis Papadopoulos,2014-09-26

The euro was generally considered a success in its first decade Nevertheless the unanticipated financial crisis in the summer of 2007 has developed gradually into the worst global economic crisis in post war economic history and a sovereign debt crisis calling into question the endurance of positive externalities under the current form of European economic integration The experience of double dip recessions in the core of the euro area and the occurrence of a deflationary spiral in its southern periphery brings into question the wisdom of fiscal consolidation via austerity in the adjustment programmes adopted to exit the crisis They also put into doubt the adequacy and efficiency of the European Economic and Monetary Union s core elements its political instruments and macroeconomic assumptions as can be seen in the role of the Stability and Growth Pact and the stance of the European Central Bank The title of this collective volume refers to the country where the European sovereign debt crisis began while its contents concentrate on the extent to which this crisis should be a national or a European concern Moreover the focus on Greece stimulates discussion about the neglected factor of the shadow economy and the potential to boost government revenue through its successful transfer to the formal economy The chapters address the inefficiencies of both euro area institutions and policies adopted to exit the current predicament Experts from several disciplines review the literature and critically evaluate the existence of issues such as contagion effects domino effects deflationary spirals institutional efficiency and the reality of the option to exit the euro area

Mind the Gap Phillip Allman,Jos Vaessen,2017-07-28 Over the past twenty to thirty years evaluation has become increasingly important to the field of public policy The number of people involved and specializing in evaluation has also increased markedly Evidence of this trend can be found in the International Atlas of Evaluation the establishment of new journals and evaluation societies and the increase in systems of evaluation Increasingly the main reference point has become an assessment of the merit and value of interventions as such rather than the evaluator s disciplinary background This growing importance of evaluation as an activity has also led to an increasing demand for the type of competencies evaluators should have Evaluation began as a niche area within the social and behavioral sciences It subsequently became linked to policy research and analysis and has more recently become trans disciplinary This volume demonstrates an association between the evaluation tradition in a particular country or policy field and the nature of the relationship between social and behavioral science research and evaluative practice This book seeks to offer comprehensive data which lead to conclusions about patterns that transcend the gap between evaluation and the social scientific disciplines Mind the Gap has a twofold aim The first is to highlight and characterize the gap between evaluation practices and debates and the substantive knowledge debates within the social and behavioral sciences The second is to show why this gap is problematic for the practice of evaluation while at the same time illustrating possible ways to build bridges The book is centered on the value of producing useful evaluations grounded in social science theory and research

Crossover of Audit and Evaluation Practices Maria Barrados,Jeremy

Lonsdale,2020-02-24 Crossover of Audit and Evaluation Practices brings together academic analysis with insights from practitioners to discuss the potential for collaboration in audit and evaluation practices between three professional disciplines Clearly written and thoughtfully organized this volume is structured in three parts to deal with theory practice issues and how the practices have worked together Part One provides definitions of performance audit internal audit and program evaluation Part Two addresses several challenges that professionals face in applying these standards and principles Part Three contains examples of organizational collaboration between the practices how they have worked together and the lessons that were learned from that experience Specific cases from the Government Accountability Office and UNESCO UNDP and Inter Americas Development Bank illustrate what has worked or not and suggest reasons why Crossover of Audit and Evaluation Practices offers even the most skilled and experienced professional insight on how to bridge some of the divides It will help generate a better understanding of the activities and services that are either imposed on them or are freely available and help to stimulate their optimal use

Monitoring Performance in the Public Sector John Winston Mayne,2017-07-05 A host of promising public sector reform efforts are underway throughout the world In governments challenged by budget deficits and declining public trust these reform efforts seek to improve policy decisions and public management Along the way program efficiency and effectiveness help rebuild public confidence in government Whether through regular measurement of program inputs activities and outcomes or through episodic one shot studies performance monitoring plays a central role in the most important current reform efforts Monitoring Performance in the Public Sector now available in paperback is based on experiences derived from comparative analysis in different countries It explains why there is interest in performance monitoring in a given setting why it has failed or created uncertainties and identifies criteria for improving its design and use One of the challenges this book offers is the need to consider dimensions of performance beyond the traditional ones of economy efficiency and effectiveness With an increasingly diverse interdependent and uncertain public sector environment for some stakeholders meeting objectives fixed some time ago may not be as important as the capacity to adapt to current and future change In this vein the contributors address a number of themes the critical importance of organizational support for performance monitoring and making it consistent with the organizational culture the need for active and effective leadership in defining criteria and implementing practical performance monitoring the value of linking ongoing measurement with more than the traditional strictly quantitative aspects of public sector performance As we gain experience with performance monitoring and its uses such systems should become more cost effective over time This book will be of deep interest to public managers government officials economists and organization theorists and useful in courses on p
