Linda Beilharz

Building Community Paperback:

Building Community Linda Beilharz, 2002 This ground breaking book documents a radically different and very successful approach to community capacity building that builds on the strengths inherent in the community rather than focusing on its perceived deficits In the Shared Action project the people of the community were approached as the experts in their lives and it is they who defined the goals and drove the activities This book rigorously captures well referenced research every step of this challenging journey and the voices of all stakeholders Building Community Loughlan Sofield, Rosine Hammett, Carroll Juliano, 1998 Insights from psychology group theory and theology are knit together to create a primer for Christian communities Especially helpful are insights into conflict forgiveness decision making intimacy and confrontation Living with Difference Adam B. Seligman, Rahel R. Wasserfall, David W. Montgomery, 2016-01-12 Whether looking at divided cities or working with populations on the margins of society a growing number of engaged academics have reached out to communities around the world to address the practical problems of living with difference This book explores the challenges and necessities of accommodating difference however difficult and uncomfortable such accommodation may be Drawing on fourteen years of theoretical insights and unique pedagogy CEDAR Communities Engaging with Difference and Religion has worked internationally with community leaders activists and other partners to take the insights of anthropology out of the classroom and into the world Rather than addressing conflict by emphasizing what is shared Living with Difference argues for the centrality of difference in creating community seeking ways not to overcome or deny differences but to live with and within them in a self reflective space and practice This volume also includes a manual for organizers to implement CEDAR s strategies in their own communities The Abundant Community John McKnight, Peter Block, 2010-06-14 This book reminds us that a neighborhood that can raise a child provide security sustain our health secure our income and care for our vulnerable people is within the power of our community Building a Community Samuel Zane 1859-1925 Batten, 2023-07-18 Learn the power of community building with Samuel Zane Batten s insightful book Discover the key principles and practices that can help you create strong and thriving communities both in your personal and professional life This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Community Building: What Makes It Work Paul W. Mattessich, Wilder Research Center, 1997-06-15 This practical guide shows you what really does and doesn t contribute to community building success It reveals 28 keys to help you build community more effectively and efficiently You won t find another single report that pulls out common lessons from across community building initiatives about what works You can use this report to find out what community characteristics contribute to successful community building make sure key processes such as communications and technical assistance are in place determine if community leaders or organizers have essential qualities such as a relationship of trust and flexibility and evaluate the likely success of a proposed project or get a struggling effort back on track Examples definitions and a detailed bibliography make this report even more valuable Wilder Research Center scoured the literature contacted resource centers and spoke with community development experts across the country The result is concrete understandable research based on real life experiences The 28 factors in this report are grouped by 1 characteristics of the community 2 characteristics of the community building process and 3 characteristics of community building organizers Detailed descriptions and case examples of how each factor plays out are followed by practical questions you can use to assess your work In addition to the factors you also get working definitions for community community building and many other terms a list of resources and contacts in the field an explanation of how the research was done and a complete bibliography of all the studies used in this report Now you can save time looking for best practice information With this concise report you ve got the tools to help your community building work succeed
