Believe In Miracles:

I Believe in Miracles Burton W. Seavey, Donna J. Seavey, 2009-04 This mesmerizing book is the story of one man's yearning to be used by God in a supernatural ministry and chronicles the 50 plus year ministry that God granted him as a result. Consisting of various vignettes ranging from personal miracles of healing and preservation and progressing to the incredible supernatural events that occurred during great crusades these true and sometimes humorous accounts will keep readers engrossed and will encourage them to also believe God for a Holy Spirit saturated ministry. This book will inspire you and stir your faith to believe for miracles. You will receive a blessing just by reading it. Dr John Eckhardt Author Apostolic Overseer Crusaders Church Chicago and IMPACT Network A must read for everyone who yearns to see the miraculous power of God at work. Once you start reading it you won't want to put it down. Apostle Trevor M Newport Author Founder Life Changing Ministries Global Outreach UK For the past half century Rev Seavey's evangelistic travels have taken him throughout the United States and overseas to 26 countries of the world where he has been used by God to minister healing to thousands of people and been privileged to have witnessed many miraculous events. He has functioned in the office calling of Prophet since the inception of his ministry and by virtue of his training and mentoring of other prophetic ministries he was accepted as a member of the International Coalition of Apostles. Married for over fifty years the Seaveys have five grown children and six grandchildren. Together they have served as pastors of five churches. The main focus of their ministry both evangelistic and pastoral has always been to encourage believers to become active participants in the work of the Lord by developing a sound biblical foundation combined with keen sensitivity to the Holy Spirit's leading. I believe in miracles! Angel Wight, 2018-12-13 13 Do You Believe In Miracles? Eugene Sierras, Angela Lopez, 2023-12-05 The main source of the stories in this book comes from the experiences relayed to me by our customers visiting the Catholic store which I and my co partner opened the last years of our careers in teaching in preparation for a transition to retirement. A majority of my shoppers were Catholic but there were many of other faiths including Protestants, Buddhists, Jews, Muslim and those who described themselves as atheists or agnostics. Readers of this book may be moved by the expressions of faith by residents of our community. Reared as a Catholic I have had questions of faith. However I have been deeply moved by the religious fervor and faith of those who have related their experiences to me. It has truly made a difference in my life. My husband also reared in a Catholic family has been more skeptical of miracles of those about which we have written about. We shared an encounter together in Eloy Arizona with the Lady in the Bell Tower which has had a significant impact on his life. This miraculous event has been witnessed by several hundred people of different faiths and nationalities. The narratives of miraculous encounters in this book may have an everlasting effect on those who read it and may serve as a segue of common values to a sometimes politically and religiously divided people. My Name Is Tani . . . and I Believe in Miracles Young Readers Edition Tanitoluwa Adewumi, 2020-04-14 An amazing miraculous refugee story of coming to America the young readers edition of Tani Adewumi's story will inspire kids looking for true stories of doing hard things At eight years old Tani Adewumi a refugee won the 2019 New York State Chess Championship after playing the game for only a year and while homeless Tani and his family fled Boko Haram's reign of terror in Nigeria to come to the United States where they lived in a New York City homeless shelter while waiting to be granted religious asylum. Tani began attending a public elementary school and decided he wanted to join the chess program but it required a fee. Tani's mother reached out to the coach who offered Tani a scholarship and a year later the young immigrant became a chess champion. Ideal for readers 8 to 12 years old, this adaptation presents compelling insight into what it means to leave a comfortable home and move to a new country with nothing. What it's like to live in America as a homeless family. How it feels to be an outsider, a Nigerian in a new school. And what it means to learn a game, compete and experience the thrill of winning. Tani's story will inspire you to believe in the power of the human spirit to triumph over the greatest adversities. And his family's faith will inspire you to believe in miracles.

My Name Is Tani . . . and I Believe in Miracles Tanitoluwa Adewumi, 2020-04-14. In their escape from Boko Haram's reign of terror in Nigeria, Tani's family's journey to the United States was nothing short of a miracle. Then 8-year-old Tani started competing with his public school in the ultra-exclusive chess clubs of New York City and winning. A true story of sacrificing everything for family and living with nothing but hope. Tani Adewumi didn't know what Boko Haram was or why they had threatened his family. All he knew was that when his parents told the family was going to America, Tani thought it was the start of a great adventure rather than an escape. In truth, his family's journey to the United States was nothing short of miraculous and the miracles were just beginning. Tani's father Kayode became a dishwasher and Uber driver while Tani's mother Oluwatoyin cleaned buildings while the family lived in a homeless shelter. Eight-year-old Tani jumped into his new life with courage and perseverance and an unusual mind for chess. After joining the chess club in his public school, Tani practiced his game for hours in the evenings at the shelter. And less than a year after he learned to play, Tani won the New York State chess championship. In this incredible book, you'll discover an inspirational true story of perseverance, hard work, and love. An eye-opening account of the threats from Boko Haram in Tani's homeland of Nigeria. The true power of the miracles each one of us can do for one another. A young boy with an aptitude for chess. Absolutely. But if you ask Tani Adewumi, he will tell you he believes in miracles and one happened to him and his family. This story will inspire delight and challenge you to believe too.
