Ancient art of the Northern Cameroons Gerard Jansen, J.-G. Gauthier, 1973 Ancient Art of the Northern Cameroons J. G. Gauthier, 1973 Ancient Art of the Northern Cameroons: Sao and Fali Gerard Jansen, J. G. Gauthier, 1973 Death Rituals and Social Order in the Ancient World Colin Renfrew, Michael J. Boyd, Iain Morley, 2016 This volume with essays by leading archaeologists and prehistorians considers how prehistoric humans attempted to recognise understand and conceptualise death The Oxford Handbook of Prehistoric Figurines Timothy Insoll, 2017-04-13 Figurines dating from prehistory have been found across the world but have never before been considered globally The Oxford Handbook of Prehistoric Figurines is the first book to offer a comparative survey of this kind bringing together approaches from across the landscape of contemporary research into a definitive resource in the field The volume is comprehensive authoritative and accessible with dedicated and fully illustrated chapters covering figurines from the Americas Europe Africa Asia and Australasia and the Pacific laid out by geographical location and written by the foremost scholars in figurine studies wherever prehistoric figurines are found they have been expertly described and examined in relation to their subject matter form function context chronology meaning and interpretation Specific themes that are discussed by contributors include for example theories of figurine interpretation meaning in processes and contexts of figurine production use destruction and disposal and the cognitive and social implications of representation Chronologically the coverage ranges from the Middle Palaeolithic through to areas and periods where an absence of historical sources renders figurines prehistoric even though they might have been produced in the mid 2nd millennium AD as in parts of sub Saharan Africa The result is a synthesis of invaluable insights into past thinking on the human body gender identity and how the figurines might have been used either practically ritually or even playfully Three Thousand Years in Africa Graham Connah, 1981-02-19 Presents a natural history of Man in the Lake Chad region of Nigeria Ritual Failure Vasiliki G. Koutrafouris, Jeff Sanders, 2013-12-31 Ritual Failure is a new concept in archaeology adopted from the discipline of anthropology Resilient religious systems disappearing strict believers and faithful practitioners not performing their rites entire societies changing their customs how does a religious ritual system transform change or disappear leaving only traces of its past glory Do societies change and then their ritual Or do customs change first in turn provoking wider cultural shifts in society Archaeology possesses the tools and methodologies to explore these questions over the long term from the emergence of a system to its peak and then its decay and disappearance and in relation to wider social and chronological developments The collected papers in this book introduce the concept of ritual failure to archaeology The analysis explores ways in which ritual may have been instrumental in sustaining cultural continuity during demanding social conditions or how its functionality might have failed resulting in discontinuity change or collapse The collected papers draw attention to those turbulent social times of change for which ritual practices are a sensitive indicator within the archaeological record The book reviews archaeological evidence and theoretical approaches and suggests models which could explain socio cultural change through ritual failure The concept of ritual failure is also often used to better understand other themes such as identity and wider social economic and political transformations shedding light on the social conditions that forced or introduced change This book will engage those interested in ritual theory and practices but will also appeal to those interested in exploring new avenues to understanding cultural change From transformations in the use of ritual objects to the risks inherent in practicing ritual from ritual continuity in customs to sudden and profound change from the Neolithic Near East to Roman Europe and Iron Age Africa this book explores what happens when ritual fails Population Structure and Human Variation G. A. Harrison,1977-08-11

This volume is a collection of eleven studies conducted during the International Biological Programme on the biological structure of human populations The Archaeology of Islam in Sub-Saharan Africa Timothy Insoll,2003-07-03 This is the first general study of the impact of Islam in sub Saharan Africa Timothy Insoll charts the historical background as well as the archaeological evidence attesting to the spread of Islam across the Sudan Ethiopia Eastern Africa Southern Africa and Nigeria surveying a time span from the immediate pre Islamic period through to the present He also analyses in detail the syncretism which has occurred between Islam and African traditional religions and looks at the processes jihad trade missionary activity prestige by which Islam spread This book will be of great relevance to scholars and students as well as to all those interested in Africa archaeology religion and Islam Material Explorations in African Archaeology Timothy Insoll,2015 Material Explorations in African Archaeology examines materiality in African archaeology by exploring concepts of material agency and material engagement and entanglement in relation to their manifest presence in persons animals objects substances and contexts of the African past
