All That Glitters:

All That Glitters Denise L'estrage Corbet,2014-10-03 A fascinating memoir from one of New Zealand's leading fashion designers This is Denise's L'Estrange Corbet's honest and frank account of her turbulent life from her difficult childhood through to her successful business life today She covers the emotional landscape of her childhood her malevolent grandmother her dysfunctional family and most of all the development of her depression This is a really honest raw story that shows how mental illness can develop through childhood Her insights into the causes and effects of depression are enthralling it's a compelling story of mental illness written with a great deal of humour At times it's like a darkly fascinating version of Bill Bryson funny anecdotes about childhood with the menacing tinge of depression Her account of the early years of WORLD her time as a fashion student in London and her interactions with people in the business are terrific This is an eye opener and a page turner of a book with great anecdotes about the fashion world and strong compelling writing about childhood and depression The foreword is by former New Zealand Prime Minister Helen Clark and all royalties go to the Mental Health Foundation

All That Glitters Lisa Ann Scott,2017-01-31 In this fabulous fantasy series opener one of the newest students at a school for magical ponies learns about confidence and the power within Daisy is thrilled to be attending the Enchanted Pony Academy where glitter ponies learn to use their magic But she's nervous too Daisy's hooves are sparkly just like every other magical pony's but they don't give off glitter And worse she has no idea what her magical power might be Will the Academy help Daisy discover her magic and make all her dreams come true or will she learn that there's been a huge mistake
