Before Your Very Eyes:

Right Before His Very Eyes Donovan Russell, 2001-06-24 This is a story about people whose ancient way of life is threatened by social upheaval and violence It is a story of Africans black brown and white during the convulsive height of apartheid made worse by the great power struggle for Africa during the incredible Cold War It is a story of people caught in something they do not understand But the story is about more than this It is also about the dilemmas that people have when face to face with a vastly different culture It is about their helplessness as events wash over them as modernization steals their children and as hard times reach into their homes The story is also about the suffering of ordinary people when big men step into the breach in Africa to exploit intimidate and struggle with each other for power and riches Issues of socioeconomic development come alive through the story Peoples lives are seen in relation to the initiatives of development organizations But this is not a story entirely about the negative side of life It is told through the touching lives of people who manage remarkably well It is a story of people from vastly different backgrounds who have hope where there is little room for it civil relations where there should be antagonism patience in the face of extreme frustration and who trust in an atmosphere of suspicion The story is at times even amusing It takes place in a complicated fascinating and overwhelmingly beautiful part of the world

Fiery Temporalities in Theatre and Performance

Maurya Wickstrom, 2018-06-14 Fiery Temporalities in Theatre and Performance The Initiation of History takes up the urgent need to think about temporality and its relationship to history in new ways focusing on theatre and performance as mediums through which politically innovative temporalities divorced from historical processionism and the future are inaugurated Wickstrom is guided by three temporal concepts the new present the penultimate and kairos as developed by Alain Badiou Giorgio Agamben and Antonio Negri respectively She works across a field of performance that includes play texts by Aimé Césaire and C. L. R. James and performances from Ntoaharhe Whitchamock to Cassils the Gob Squad to William Kentridge and African colonial revolts Hofesh Schechter to Forced Entertainment to Andrew Schneider and Omar Rajeh

Along the way she also engages with Walter Benjamin black international and radical thought and performance Bruno Latour Stefano Harney and Fred Moten s logistics and the hold and accelerationism Representing a significant contribution to the growing interest in temporality in Theatre and Performance Studies the book offers alternatives to what have been prevailing temporal preoccupations in those fields Countering investments in phenomenology finitude ghosting repetition and return Wickstrom argues that theatre and performance can create a fiery sense of how to change time and thereby nominate a new possibility for what it means to live
