

Model Composition

The following composition is a personal recount, based on the second and third pictures. It is a story about doing things in front of an audience. Note that the writer does not mention being nervous until the second paragraph.

The first paragraph serves as a contrast with the second paragraph.

I started learning to play the violin when I was just five years old. Since then I have often played solos at concerts in front of large audiences. People sometimes ask me if I feel nervous before these performances. I can honestly say that I do not. I am confident in my ability to play well.

Modal verbs ('could', 'might', 'would') are used in the second paragraph to talk about what might happen.

That does not mean that I never feel anxious about anything. I recently did some fund-raising work for a cancer charity, and the principal asked me to talk to the school about it. I was absolutely terrified! Although I had carefully planned what I was going to say, I had nightmares about what could go wrong. I might stammer, or say something silly by mistake, and everyone would laugh at me.

When I finally stood up to speak, my hands were shaking so much that I could not hold my notes. Fortunately I had practised my speech so often that I knew it by heart. At the end, everyone applauded. I felt prouder than I have ever felt before, because I had conquered my fear.

There is also contrast in the final paragraph, which builds up from a very nervous state to a feeling of great pride.
