Arts and Terror Vladimir L. Marchenkov, 2014-06-26 This book examines the manifestations of terror in the arts From classical tragedy to post 9 11 responses terror as an emotion violent act and state of the world has been a preoccupation of artists in all genres Using philosophy art history film studies interdisciplinary arts theatre studies and musicology the authors included here delve into this perennially contemporary theme to produce insights articulated in a variety of idioms from traditional philosophical humanism to phenomenology to feminism Their approaches may vary but together they reinforce the notion that terror is a thread in the fabric of artistic expression as much as it has always been and alas remains a thread in the fabric of life

Decolonial Cultural Practices Towards Pluriversal Cultural Institutions and Policies Meike Lettau, Özlem Canyürek, 2024-12-31 The book critically examines the epistemological disparities between colonialism and capitalism critical cultural practices and Western art institutions It does so through the lens of documenta 15 focusing on ruangrupa's lumbung approach which confronts Eurocentric cultural norms and stimulates a shift towards pluriversal horizons demonstrating the transformative potential of alternative methodologies This book provides a comprehensive understanding of how collective methods and practices can cultivate pluriversal horizons in cultural institutions and policies informed by extensive field research at documenta 15 The key elements of the approach include interdisciplinary perspectives linking theory and practice and exploring under discussed dimensions of epistemological disparities It offers practical and theoretical insights into the development of frameworks for cultural practices and policies critical of coloniality and discrimination recognizes the coexistence of equally valuable epistemes and aims to dismantle Eurocentric structures in the cultural sector This valuable contribution presents relevant insights for those interested in decolonial studies diversity frameworks in cultural institutions and individuals engaged in the critique and transformation of Eurocentric practices within the cultural sector It will appeal to scholars researchers and practitioners in fields such as cultural studies sociology political science cultural geography cultural policy and art education as well as professionals and policymakers

Globalizing Contemporary Art Lotte Philipsen, 2010-10-31 Today contemporary art is a global phenomenon Biennales museums art fairs galleries auction houses academies and audiences for contemporary visual art are all institutions whose presence on a global scale has widened tremendously during the past two decades Thus by including contemporary art from non Western regions these traditional Western art institutions have not only broadened their scope to a greater extent but have also been challenged themselves by the new cultural economic and media world order of globalization How contemporary art is made international is the subject of this book tracing as it does developments during the past two decades while focusing particularly on the mechanisms of globality which are at work in the art world today The book critically investigates fundamental questions like What is New Internationalism in contemporary art and how it affected the art world How does New Internationalism relate to concepts like ethnicity aesthetics standard art history and new media And how is New Internationalism rather paradoxically furthered to a greater extent by global capitalism than it is by seemingly progressive art projects      Four Books in a Box Joseph Beuys, 2022-07-22 A comprehensive four volume boxed set exploring Beuys life and career from those who knew him best Each volume in this boxed set explores a specific Joseph Beuys 1921-86 project offering an insider's view of some of his most original works and celebrating the extraordinary 18 year collaboration between Beuys Klaus Staack and Gerhard Steidl
