Presence Stephen R. Shaver,2021-11-16 In Metaphors of Eucharistic Presence Language Cognition and the Body and Blood of Christ Stephen R Shaver brings together the fields of cognitive linguistics and liturgical theology to propose a new approach to the ecumenically controversial issue of eucharistic presence Drawing from the work of cognitive linguists such as George Lakoff Gilles Fauconnier and Mark Turner and theologians such as Robert Masson and John Sanders Shaver argues that there is no clear division between literal and figurative language rather human cognition is grounded in sensorimotor experience and phenomena such as metaphor and conceptual blending are basic building blocks of thought Complex realities are ordinarily understood by means of more than one metaphor Inherited models of eucharistic presence then are not necessarily mutually exclusive but can serve as complementary members of a shared ecumenical repertoire
