Legal Fictions in International Law Reece Lewis, 2021-06-25 This innovative book extensively probes and reveals the existence of legal fictions in international law developing a theory of their effectiveness and legitimacy Reece Lewis argues that since legal fictions exist in all systems and types of law international law is no different and deserves discrete detailed examination

Law, Immunization and the Right to Die Jennifer Hardes, 2016-03-10 Law Immunization and the Right to Die focuses on the urgent matter of legal appeals and judicial decisions on assisted death Drawing on key cases from the United Kingdom and Canada the book focuses on the problematic paternalism of legal decisions that currently deny assisted dying and questions why the law fails to recognize what many describe as compassionate motives for assisted death When cases are analyzed as discourses that are part of a larger socio political logic of governance judicial decisions it is argued here reveal themselves as relying on the construction of neoliberal fictions fictions that are here elucidated with reference to Michel Foucault's theoretical insights on pastoral power and Roberto Esposito's philosophical thesis on immunization Challenging the socio political logic of neoliberalism the issue of assisted dying goes beyond the predominant legal concern with protecting or immunizing individuals from one another in favor of minimal interference This book calls for a new kind of politics one that might affirm people and their finitude both more collectively and more compassionately

Fiction and the Frontiers of Knowledge in Europe, 1500-1800 Mr Richard Scholar, Professor Alexis Tadié, 2013-04-28 The uses of fiction in early modern Europe are far more varied than is often assumed by those who consider fiction to be synonymous with the novel The contributors to this volume demonstrate the significant role that fiction plays in early modern European culture not only in a variety of its literary genres but also in its formation of philosophical ideas political theories and the law The volume explores these uses of fiction in a series of interrelated case studies ranging from the Italian Renaissance to the French Revolution and examining the work of among others Montaigne Corneille Descartes Hobbes Locke and Diderot It asks Where does fiction live and thrive Under what conditions and to what ends It suggests that fiction is best understood not as a genre or a discipline but instead as a frontier one that demarcates literary genres and disciplines of knowledge and which crucially allows for the circulation of ideas between them
