

BASIC CATECHISM FOR ALL

"Catechism" comes from KATA in Greek meaning down and ECHEIN meaning sound; literally to mean "to sound down" (in to the ears) i.e. to say "to instruct".

The term "catechumen", also a derivative, means "one entering the Church." Though the term "catechumen" has been a part of the Church's tradition for over two millennia, the term "catechism" is much more recent in the life of the Roman Catholic Church.

A catechism has been defined as "a summary of principles, often in question-and-answer format". Mostly, they are meant for use in class or other formal instruction.

Basic Catechism for All by Dr. John Parankimalil is arranged in three principal parts: Part I – Catholic Catechism; Part II – Discovering Jesus in the Bible; Part III – Common Prayers. Towards the end of the book there is a useful addendum that gives in a nutshell all the basics of Catholic Faith.
