Neither Settler nor Native Mahmood Mamdani, 2020-11-30 Prospect Top 50 Thinker of 2021 British Academy Book Prize Finalist PROSE Award Finalist Provocative elegantly written Fara Dabhoiwala New York Review of Books Demonstrates how a broad rethinking of political issues becomes possible when Western ideals and practices are examined from the vantage point of Asia and Africa Pankaj Mishra New York Review of Books In case after case around the globe from Israel to Sudan the colonial state and the nation state have been constructed through the politicization of a religious or ethnic majority at the expense of an equally manufactured minority The model emerged in America where genocide and internment on reservations created a permanent native minority In Europe this template would be used both by the Nazis and the Allies Neither Settler nor Native offers a vision for arresting this process Mahmood Mamdani points to inherent limitations in the legal solution attempted at Nuremberg Political violence demands political solutions not criminal justice but a rethinking of the political community to include victims and perpetrators bystanders and beneficiaries Making the radical argument that the nation state was born of colonialism he calls on us to delink the nation from the state so as to ensure equal political rights for all who live within its boundaries A deeply learned account of the origins of our modern world Mamdani rejects the current focus on human rights as the means to bring justice to the victims of this colonial and postcolonial bloodshed Instead he calls for a new kind of political imagination Joining the ranks of Hannah Arendt s Imperialism Frantz Fanon s The Wretched of the Earth and Edward Said s Orientalism this book is destined to become a classic text of postcolonial studies and political theory Moustafa Bayoumi author of How Does It Feel to Be a Problem A masterwork of historical comparison and razor sharp political analysis with grave lessons about the pitfalls of forgetting moralizing or criminalizing this violence Mamdani also offers a hopeful rejoinder in a revived politics of decolonization Karuna Mantena Columbia University A powerfully original argument one that supplements political analysis with a map for our political future Faisal Devji University of Oxford

Abnormal Psychology Ann M. Kring, Sheri L. Johnson, 2021-03-03 Since its inception Abnormal Psychology has carefully balanced research and clinical application engaging learners in the complex challenges with which clinicians and scientists are faced every day The new 15th edition features a new integrated approach shining a light on psychopathologies root causes and most effective treatments by approaching these disorders from multiple complementary perspectives underscoring that very often biological cognitive behavioral and socioemotional factors are critical to understanding psychological disorders

The Hazaras and the Afghan State Niamatullah Ibrahimi, 2017-10-01 The Hazaras of Afghanistan have borne the brunt of many of the destructive forces unleashed by the establishment of the Afghan monarchy in 1747 The history of their relationship with the Afghan state has been punctuated by frequent episodes of ethnic cleansing mass dispossession forced displacement enslavement and social and economic exclusion Mostly Shia in a country dominated by Sunni Muslims and identifiable because of their Asian features the Hazaras became Afghanistan's internal Other They look different and practice a different school of Islam in a country that is prone to internal conflict and the machinations of external powers The history of the Hazaras therefore offers a unique perspective into the deep contradictions of Afghanistan as a modern state and how its ethnic and religious dynamics continue to undermine the post 2001 political process This volume provides a fresh account of both the strategies and tactics of the Afghan state and how the Hazaras have responded to them focusing on three key phenomena Hazara rebellion and resistance to the intrusion of the Afghan state in the nineteenth century the incorporation of the Hazara homeland into Afghanistan in the 1890s and their subsequent marginalization and exclusion and the Hazaras ethnic mobilization and struggle for recognition in recent decades

Positive Peace in Schools Hilary Cremin, Terence Bevington, 2017-04-07 Positive Peace in Schools offers a fresh and challenging perspective on the question of conflict violence and peace in schools Drawing on the most up to date theory and research from the field of peace and conflict studies this book provides readers with a strong understanding of the concept of positive peace and how the dimensions of peace keeping peace making and peace building can be robustly applied in schools This accessible book challenges educators everywhere to reconsider the nature of direct and indirect violence in schools and the structural and cultural factors that sustain it It engages with global traditions of harmony and balance that are often neglected in Western notions of liberal securitised peace in order to suggest a model for schools that integrates inner and outer peace The book also includes practical sections that outline restorative approaches to discipline peer mediation circle learning and classroom activities to promote mindfulness inclusion and wellbeing Taken together these provide a philosophy and a highly effective framework for building conflict literacy and a culture of peace in schools

The Elements of the Heliograph Frederick King Ward, 1883

Game of Mirrors: Centre-Periphery National Conflicts Francisco Letamendia, 2019-07-30 This title was first published in 2000 Nationalism and the national question have represented a problem since the early years of the 19th century Understanding these phenomena represents a challenge for political science because the nation is not a natural phenomenon rather it is the consequence of nationalism Attempts to reduce nationalism to one or several factors have been unsuccessful it has multiple factors that are variable in space and time Nationalism is a problem of beliefs and conscience linked to the historical action of nationalist groups A second difficulty derives from the distinction between nationalism of the dominant and nationalism of the oppressed The majority of political theorists now believe that these centre and periphery nationalisms are different and therefore adversaries Using first hand experience of Basque separatism as a starting point the author adds to it with the main manifestations of this phenomenon around the world

Filipinos in Canada Roland Sintos Coloma, Bonnie S. McElhinny, Lisa M. Davidson, John Paul Catungal, Ethel Tungohan, 2012-01-01 The Philippines became Canada's largest source of short and long term migrants in 2010 surpassing China and India both of which are more than ten times larger The fourth largest racialized minority group in the country the Filipino community is frequently understood by such figures as the victimized nanny the selfless nurse and the gangster youth On one hand these narratives concentrate attention in narrow and stereotypical ways on critical issues On the other they render other problems facing Filipino communities invisible This landmark book the first wide ranging edited collection on Filipinos in Canada explores gender migration and labour youth spaces and subjectivities representation and community resistance to certain representations Looking at these from the vantage points of anthropology cultural studies education geography history information science literature political science sociology and women and gender studies Filipinos in Canada provides a strong foundation for future work in this area Transitional Justice and the Historical Abuses of Church and State James Gallen, 2023-03-30

Interrogates the role of power and emotions in the responses of Western States and churches to their historical abuses

Preventing Genocide David A. Hamburg, 2015-11-17 Genocide has been called a problem from hell and despite vehement declarations of never again it s a problem that continues to plague the world From the beginning of history to the most recent massacres in Bosnia Rwanda and Darfur genocide defies resolution And given today s worldwide access to highly lethal weapons and advanced communications technology facilitating incitement to hate we can expect to see this problem grow It is often claimed that genocide occurs without warning taking both local and global communities by surprise Yet as David Hamburg convincingly shows we have had long term advance knowledge of most modern genocides dating back to the early 20th century Armenian tragedy in Turkey and before In this book Dr Hamburg applies a groundbreaking new perspective the medical model of prevention to the scourge of genocide in the world Preventing genocide is not only possible Dr Hamburg contends but essential given its high cost in lives human rights and international security Here he maps out numerous practical steps to recognise genocidal conflicts early and stem their tides of violence before they become acute He also outlines several institutions in place and programs underway at the UN EU and NATO devoted to preventing future genocides before they erupt He draws lessons both from missed opportunities and successful experiences and makes many constructive suggestions about strengthening international institutions governments and NGOs for this purpose
