Building Europe Cultural Politics Of European Integration:

Building Europe Cris Shore, 2013-11-05 The development of the European Union has been one of the most profound advances in European politics and society this century Yet the institutions of Europe and the Eurocrats who work in them have constantly attracted negative publicity culminating in the mass resignation of the European Commissioners in March 1999 In this revealing study Cris Shore scrutinises the process of European integration using the techniques of anthropology and drawing on thought from across the social sciences Using the findings of numerous interviews with EU employees he reveals that there is not just a subculture of corruption within the institutions of Europe but that their problems are largely a result of the way the EU itself is constituted and run He argues that European integration has largely failed in bringing about anything but an ever closer integration of the technical political and financial elites of Europe at the expense of its ordinary citizens This critical anthropology of European integration is essential reading for anyone with an interest in the culture and politics of the EU

The Cultural Politics of Europe Kiran Klaus Patel, 2013-06-07 Culture is one of the most complex and contested fields of European integration This book analyzes EU cultural politics since their emergence in the 1980s with a particular focus on the European Capital of Culture program the flagship of EU cultural policy It discusses both the central as well as local levels and contextualizes EU policies with programmes of other European organisations such as the Council of Europe By asking what Europe actually means for European cultural policy the book goes beyond the confines of official organizations and the political sphere to discuss the contribution impact and appropriation among a more diverse group of actors and participants such as transnational experts local bureaucrats cultural managers urban dwellers and the visitors Its principal aim is to debunk the myth of Brussels as the centre of cultural Europeanization Instead it argues that European cultural policy has to be seen as a relational multi directional movement involving a wide variety of stakeholders and leading to conflicts and collaborations at various levels This book combines the perspectives of political scientists sociologists anthropologists and historians at the intersection between EU urban and cultural studies and changes our understanding of Europeanization by opening up new empirical and conceptual avenues Challenging the dominant interpretation of European cultural policies The Cultural Politics of Europe will be of interest to students and scholars of European studies political scientists sociologists anthropologists geographers historians and cultural studies

The Cultural Politics of European Prostitution Reform Greggor Mattson, 2016-01-28 The Cultural Politics of European Prostitution Reform traces case studies of four European Union countries to reveal the way anxieties over globalization translates into policies to recognize sex workers in some countries punish prostitutes clients in others and protect victims of human trafficking in them all

Contemporary Perspectives on Turkey's EU Accession Process Catherine MacMillan, 2018-10-19 Despite having made its first application for EEC membership in 1959 Turkey's bid to join the EU remains as controversial as ever with Turkey and EU relations arguably at an all time low in the aftermath of the attempted coup d tat of July 2016 In this context the essays here while using de

Europeanisation as a broad theoretical framework explore the current state of Turkey's EU accession bid from a variety of perspectives including discourse analysis Euroscepticism and institutionalist approaches The essays focus not only on discursive and policy de Europeanisation within Turkey but also examine both official EU and European right wing Eurosceptic discourse on Turkish accession as well as approaching the Turkish accession process through comparisons with the contemporary Western Balkan countries and with post war Germany

Black France, White Europe Emily Marker, 2022-10-15 Winner of the George Louis Beer Prize Black France White Europe illuminates the deeply entangled history of European integration and African decolonization Emily Marker maps the horizons of belonging in postwar France as leaders contemplated the inclusion of France's old African empire in the new Europe in the making European integration intensified longstanding structural contradictions of French colonial rule in Africa Would Black Africans and Black African Muslims be French If so would they then also be European What would that mean for republican France and united Europe more broadly Marker examines these questions through the lens of youth amid a surprising array of youth and education initiatives to stimulate imperial renewal and European integration from the ground up She explores how education reforms and programs promoting solidarity between French and African youth collided with transnational efforts to make young people in Western Europe feel more European She connects a particular postwar vision for European unity which coded Europe as both white and raceless Christian and secular to crucial decisions about what should be taught in African classrooms and how many scholarships to provide young Africans to study and train in France That vision of Europe also informed French responses to African student activism for racial and religious equality which ultimately turned many young francophone Africans away from France irrevocably Black France White Europe shows that the interconnected history of colonial and European youth initiatives is key to explaining why despite efforts to strengthen ties with its African colonies in the 1940s and 1950s France became more European during those years

New Common Ground Amitai Etzioni, 2009 Toward a new consensus on rights and responsibilities

Geopolitics and Culture Sanna Tuoma, Sigrid Kaasik-Krogerus, Saara Ratilainen, 2025-02-15 Inspired by popular feminist subaltern and ecocritical geopolitics Geopolitics and Culture Narrating Eastern European and Eurasian Worlds presents new research of culture in the Eastern European context This volume highlights the symbolic production of power which although located outside political institutions engenders geopolitical boundaries and defines cultural margins Analyzing multilingual materials such as blockbuster films digital visuals blogs and discussion forums print fiction and TV series museum exhibitions and everyday cultural practice this book argues for the importance of studying the links between geopolitical narratives global and regional hierarchies and popular cultural production The contributors advance a decolonizing methodology which challenges the cultural and geopolitical hierarchies inside Eastern Europe and Eurasia while also casting a critical eye on the geopolitical hierarchies of global Anglophone media cultures

New Europe, New World? Alfonso Martínez Arranz, 2010 The EU has long played a central role in promoting economic prosperity and political stability in Europe With twenty seven countries it is a powerful trade negotiator and is seen by many as a growing force for global security and welfare But does the EU giant have feet of clay Is it recognized as a legitimate political and social project by its own citizens How well does it respond to global challenges such as environmental degradation and terrorism How successful is it in projecting its image as a promoter of human rights of conflict prevention social justice development cooperation environmental protection and multilateralism This volume contributes to the debate about the changing face of Europe and the way it works not just internally but also with the rest of the world It first explores the merits of fostering inclusive multicultural citizenship and religious pluralism in Europe the necessity of reinventing the EU from below and the urgency of addressing EU internal migration problems It then examines the new role of the EU in world politics and how other countries view it in terms of hard and soft power Can the EU inspire by its development aid conflict prevention social and audiovisual policies How efficient is it in exporting security to the rest of the world The final chapters deal with the EU in the Asia Pacific region

The European Union as a Global Cultural Power Mafalda Dâmaso, 2025-05-19 Although culture is increasingly recognised as a relevant focus of scholarly analysis the European Union EU has not yet been examined as a global cultural power Addressing this gap this book offers a comprehensive overview of the multiple arenas through which the EU has emerged as a major cultural actor beyond its borders Focusing on Culture in Foreign Policy and Development as well as Media and Trade the book gathers an international team of experts to provide a comprehensive analysis of the EU s multifaceted cultural action across various policy fields and regions The book draws together discussions in cultural studies cultural policy international relations media studies and law to ask the following questions What characterises EU cultural and media policies and programmes beyond its borders What are the assumptions and the goals that underlie such policies and programmes Suggesting that the EU is beginning to emerge as an enabling power that supports cultural diversity around the world the volume also reflects on the global role of the EU and contribute to debates regarding the liberal international order by taking a new angle

The State and the Arts Judith Kapferer, 2008-08-01 Judith Kapferer and her collaborators present an insightful volume that interrogates relations between the state and the arts in diverse national and cultural settings The authors critique the taken for granted assumption about the place of the arts in liberal or social democratic states and the role of the arts in supporting or opposing the ideological work of government and non government institutions This innovative volume explores the challenges posed by the state to the arts and by the arts to the state focusing on several transformations of the interrelations between state and commercial arts policies in the current era These ongoing challenges include the control of repressive tolerance complicity with and resistance to state power and the commoditization of the arts including their accommodation to market and state apparatuses While endeavouring to avoid the currently dominant pragmatic and didactic priorities of officialdom the contributors tackle social and cultural policy and practice in the arts as well as connections between national states and
