wide range of institutions and purposes Institutions are invited to use this volume to initiate faculty learning communities on their campuses This is the 97th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Teaching and Learning Expanding the Vision of Faculty Learning Communities in Higher Education Kristin N. Rainville,David G. Title,Cynthia G. Desrochers,2024-04-01 This edited book on Faculty Learning Communities FLCs explores the ways in which FLCs have expanded across platforms spaces and focus while maintaining the core values and elements of original FLCs The first section investigates ways that FLCs support faculty retention teaching and scholarship The second section offers examples of FLCs focused on teaching that is responsive to student learning The third section explores the move to online and virtual FLCs The fourth section explores FLCs that create and foster faculty belonging communities of care and the integration of mindfulness The fifth section looks at multi year long term progression and impact of FLCs The book s foreword by Milton D Cox investigates the evolution of leadership of and within faculty learning communities as they expand Powerful Learning Communities Oscar T. Lenning,Denise M. Hill,Kevin P. Saunders,Andria Stokes,Alisha Solan,2023-07-03 Learning communities have been demonstrated to dramatically improve student outcomes by engaging students in their learning This book constitutes a comprehensive guide for readers who want a broad strategic view of learning communities enabling them to identify which type of LC best meets the learning needs of their students and the context and mission of their institution It also provides the tools for planning designing and implementing what the authors define as powerful LCs and for understanding the assessment implications of their decisions The potential power of LCs is realized through effective facilitation appropriate team building activities linkages planning and active collaboration that promotes learning of the group and the individual group members all of which topics are covered in this volume This book is organized around the three themes of setting the stage designing an LC and building or enhancing a powerful LC and covers three types of learning communities student professional faculty staff and institutional LCs concerned with student learning providing a range of tools and forms to facilitate planning The authors also address designing and maintaining hybrid and virtual LCs This book is intended as a practical resource for anyone at any level in higher education who wants to champion develop or redesign student or professional LCs or even explore broader initiatives to develop their institution into a learning organization Administrators in academic and student affairs will find guidance for setting appropriate policies and allocating resources The book may also serve as a textbook for graduate courses in institutional leadership and policy studies curriculum and instruction student affairs or assessment evaluation Developing Faculty Learning Communities at Two-Year Colleges Susan Sipple,Robin Lightner,2023-07-03 This book introduces community college faculty and faculty developers to the use of faculty learning communities FLCs as a means for faculty themselves to investigate and surmount student learning problems they encounter in their classrooms and as an effective and low cost strategy for faculty developers working with few resources to stimulate innovative teaching that leads to student persistence and improved learning outcomes Two year college instructors face the unique challenge of teaching a mix of learners from the developmental to high achievers that requires using a variety of instructional strategies and techniques Even the most experienced teachers can find this diversity demanding Faculty developers at many two year colleges still rely solely on the one day workshop model that while useful rarely results in sustained student centered changes in pedagogy or the curriculum and may not be practicable for the growing cohort of part time faculty members By linking work in the classroom with scholarship and reflection FLCs provide participants with a sense of renewed engagement and stimulate collegial exploration of ways to achieve educational excellence FLCs are usually faculty instigated and cross disciplinary and comprise groups of six to fifteen faculty that work collaboratively through regular meetings over an extended period of time to promote research and an exchange of experiences foster community and develop the scholarship of teaching FLCs alleviate burnout and isolation promote the development testing and peer review of new classroom strategies or technologies and lead to the reenergizing and professionalization of teachers This book introduces the reader to FLCs and to the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning offering examples of application in two year colleges Individual chapters describe among others an FLC set up to support course redesign an Adjunct Connectivity FLC to integrate part time faculty within a department and collaborate on the curriculum a cross disciplinary FLC to promote student self regulated learning and improve academic performance and persistence a critical thinking FLC that sought to define critical thinking in separate disciplines examine interdisciplinary cross over of critical thinking and measure critical thinking more accurately an FLC that researched the transfer of learning and developed strategies to promote students application of their learning across courses and beyond the classroom Each chapter describes the formation of its FLC the processes it engaged in what worked and did not and the outcomes achieved Just as when college faculty fail to remain current in their fields the failure to engage in continuing development of teaching skills will equally lead teaching and learning to suffer When two year college administrators restrain scholarship and reflection as inappropriate for the real work of the institution they are in fact hindering the professionalization of their teaching force that is essential to institutional mission and student success When FLCs are supported by leaders and administrators and faculty learn that collaboration and peer review are valued and even expected as part of being a teaching professional they become intrinsically motivated and committed to collaboratively solving problems setting the institution on a path to becoming a learning organization that is proactive and adept at navigating change
