Minding Movies David Bordwell, Kristin Thompson, 2011-03-15 David Bordwell and Kristin Thompson are two of America's preeminent film scholars. You would be hard pressed to find a serious student of the cinema who hasn't spent at least a few hours huddled with their seminal introduction to the field Film Art now in its ninth edition or a cable television junkie unaware that the Independent Film Channel sagely christened them the Critics of the Naughts. Since launching their blog Observations on Film Art in 2006 the two have added web virtuosos to their growing list of accolades, pitching unconventional long form pieces engaged with film artistry that have helped to redefine cinematic storytelling for a new age and audience. Minding Movies presents a selection from over three hundred essays on genre movies, art films, animation and the business of Hollywood that have graced Bordwell and Thompson's blog. Informal pieces conversational in tone but grounded in three decades of authoritative research, the essays gathered here range from in-depth analyses of individual films such as Slumdog Millionaire and Inglourious Basterds to adjustments of Hollywood media claims and forays into cinematic humor. For Bordwell and Thompson the most fruitful place to begin is how movies are made, how they work and how they work on us. Written for film lovers, these essays on topics ranging from Borat to blockbusters and back again will delight current fans and gain new enthusiasts. Serious but not solemn, vibrantly informative without condescension and above all illuminating, reading Minding Movies offers ideas sure to set film lovers thinking and keep them returning to the silver screen.

Kaklamanidou, 2016-10-20 With strict guidelines on methodology and time frame films produced after September 2001 and a socio semiotic theoretical framework Betty Kaklamanidou unpacks the problematic terms and ideas that go along with defining a new genre Kaklamanidou considers a different sub genre per chapter placing each group of films in their socio historical context to reach conclusions about the production of political films in millennial Hollywood In shifting the terms of the debate The Disguised Political Film in Contemporary Hollywood offers a fresh new approach to the subject of the political film The political film is not a clearly delineated object but rather an elusive one and resistant to clear boundaries So what is a political film Can The Hunger Games 2012 belong to the same category as Lincoln 2012 Is Jarhead 2005 a political movie simply because it is set during the Gulf War but with no reference to the motives of the conflict and or American and Arab relations and thus in the same group of war films such as The Three Kings 1999 another narrative that focuses on the same military conflict but includes direct commentary to governmental and military strategies Are historical films by definition political since the majority deals with significant events and or people in a specific socio cultural landscape

Gronbeck-Tedesco, 2015-12-03 This collection of essays presents a sampling of film and television texts interrogating images of U S masculinity Rather than using postfeminist as a definition of contemporary feminism this collection uses the term to designate the period from the late 1980s on as a point when feminist thought gradually became more mainstream The movies and TV series examined here have achieved a level of sustained attention from critical acclaim to mass appeal to cult status Instead of beginning with a set hypothesis on the effect of the feminist movement on images of masculinity on film and television these chapters represent a range of responses that demonstrate how the conversations within these texts about American masculinity are often open ended allowing both male characters and male viewers a wider range of options Defining the relationship between U S masculinity and American feminist movements of the twentieth century is a complex undertaking The essays collected for this volume engage prominent film and television texts that directly interrogate images of U S masculinity that have appeared since second wave feminism The contributors have chosen textual examples whose protagonists actively struggle with the conflicting messages about masculinity These protagonists are more often works in progress acknowledging the limits of their negotiations and self actualization These chapters also cover a wide range of genres and decades from action and fantasy to dramas and romantic comedy from the late 1970s to today Taken together the chapters of Screening Images of American Masculinity in the Age of Postfeminism interrogate the possible screened in popular movies and television series confronting the multiple and competing visions of masculinity not after or beyond feminism but rather in its very wake 100 Guilty Pleasure Movies James Stratton, 2017-07-29 Along with such familiar titles as The Devil Wears Prada and Remember the Titans Stratton introduces readers to lesser known gems like Diplomatic Courier The Narrow Margin Prime Cut and Under Fire The selections represent every major genre of film domestic drama musical film noir Western science fiction comedy biopic war espionage sports superhero and horror Among the acting careers examined are those of Cary Grant Marlene Dietrich Judy Garland Greer Garson Burt Lancaster Meryl Streep Matt Damon Mark Wahlberg Denzel Washington Daniel Craig and many others Covering over ninety years of film history this is a book for the casual fan as well as the seasoned student Easy to read and to navigate it is a must have reference
