Bread Out Of Stone Recollections Sex Recognitions Race Dreaming Politics:

Bread Out of Stone Dionne Brand, 1994 Brand turns her clear unflinching eye to issues of sex and sexism male violence toward women how Black women learn the erotic the vulnerability of Black female life in the city and the stereotypes of Black females in popular culture She looks at the denial of racism by the white liberal cultural elite the centrality of whiteness in definitions of North American culture the responses of the dominant culture to difference and white appropriation and representations of Black culture The history and experience of Toronto's Black community are illuminated in essays charting the differing issues and politics confronting white and Black immigrant groups the growth of the Black consciousness movement and the coming of age and the inner lives of a new generation of Blacks in the city And she examines her personal history further exploring her themes as she journeys home to Trinidad tells of being turned down for a job describes becoming a leftist reviews her influences as a poet and considers the process of filmmaking as a metaphor for the way each of us makes decisions about what we will and will not see The New North American Studies Winfried Siemerling, 2005 Winner of the English Book Award Grand Prix du Livre 2006 de la Ville de Sherbrooke In this original and groundbreaking study Winfried Siemerling examines the complexities of recognition and identity rejecting previous nationalized thinking to approach North American cultural transformations from transnational and interdisciplinary perspectives Using material from the United States and Canada as case studies and drawing on a wide range of texts and theorists he examines postcoloniality and cultural emergence from the sixties to the present against earlier backgrounds Siemerling's argument for a retheorization of the field takes on the full history of multiculturalism debates including radical readings of W E B Du Bois and Charles Taylor and their relation to G W F Hegel and challenging many of the models of multiculturalism in use today Tackling controversial subjects such as identity politics The New North American Studies proposes a fresh outlook on the most central issues of North American cultural politics from debates on canon formation to the role of racial and linguistic difference Concluding with a look at the future of cultural difference Winfried Siemerling's study is an innovative rethinking of the whole field of North American Studies Black Religion and Aesthetics A. Pinn, 2009-07-06 A great deal of attention has been given to the sociopolitical and theological importance of Black Religion However of less academic concern up to this point is the aesthetic qualities that define much of what is said and done within the context of Black Religion Recognizing the centrality of the black body for black religious thought and life this book proposes a conversation concerning various dimensions of the aesthetic considerations and qualities of Black Religion as found in various parts of the world including the Americas the Caribbean Africa and Europe In this respect Black Religion is simply meant to connote the religious orientations and arrangements of people of African descent across the globe The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature Michael A. Bucknor, Alison Donnell, 2011-06-14 This Companion is divided into six sections that provide an introduction to and critical history of the field discussions of key texts and a critical debate on major topics such as the nation race gender and migration In the final section contributors examine the material dissemination of Caribbean literature and point towards the new directions that Caribbean literature and criticism are taking

Sea Change Christina Gerhardt, 2023-05-23 Low lying island nations are least responsible for global warming but they are already suffering its impacts severely and disproportionately According to the International Panel on Climate Change island nations are responsible for 0.03% of global emissions A weave of essays maps poems and illustrations Sea Change presents the impacts of and solutions to sea level rise An essay drawing on interviews scientific reports academic scholarship and archival research shares their histories present day challenges and efforts toward livable futures A map shows the inundation zones Poems breathe life into the analysis

Narratives of Difference in Globalized Cultures Belén Martín-Lucas, Andrea Ruthven, 2017-12-07 This book is about how the marketing of transnational cultural commodities capitalizes on difference and its appeal for cosmopolitan consumers in our postmodern globalized world At what price What ethical and political conundrums does the artist writer reader confront when going global This volume analyzes why difference whether gender sexual racial ethnic or linguistic has become such a prominent element in the contemporary cultural field and the effects of this prevalence on the production circulation and reception of cultural commodities in the context of globalization At the intersection of globalization diaspora postcolonial and feminist studies in world literature these essays engage critically with a wide variety of representative narratives taken from diverse cultural fields including humanitarian fiction multilingual poetry painting text image art performance art film documentary and docu poetry The chapters included offer counter readings that disrupt hegemonic representations of cultural identity within the contemporary neoliberal and globalized landscape

Managing Ethnic Diversity Reza Hasmath, 2016-05-13 The management of ethnic diversity has become a topical and often controversial subject in recent times with much debate surrounding multiculturalism as a systematic and comprehensive response for dealing with ethnic diversity This book engages with these debates examining the tangible outcomes of multiculturalism as a policy and philosophy in a range of traditional and newer multi ethnic nations Exploring the questions of whether multiculturalism can promote ethnic harmony employment equity and trust between various minority and non minority groups Managing Ethnic Diversity also adopts a comparative perspective on the experiences of multiculturalism in various international contexts in order to examine whether lessons learned from some jurisdictions can be applied to others With an international team of experts presenting the latest research from the UK North America Europe China and Australasia a truly global dialogue is fostered with regard to the utility and limits of multiculturalism in local and comparative contexts As such Managing Ethnic Diversity will appeal to social scientists interested in race and ethnicity multiculturalism and migration

Comrade Sister Laurie R. Lambert, 2020-06-08 In 1979 the Marxist Leninist New Jewel Movement under Maurice Bishop overthrew the government of the Caribbean island country of Grenada establishing the People's Revolutionary Government The United States under President Reagan infamously invaded Grenada in 1983 staying until the New National Party won election effectively dealing a death blow to socialism in Grenada With Comrade Sister Laurie Lambert offers the first comprehensive study of how gender and sexuality produced different narratives of the Grenada Revolution Reimagining this period with women at its center Laurie Lambert shows how the revolution must be recognized for its both productive and corrosive tendencies Lambert argues that the literature of the Grenada Revolution exposes how the more harmful aspects of revolution are visited on and are therefore more apparent to women Calling attention to the mark of black feminism on the literary output of Caribbean writers of this period Lambert addresses the gap between women s active participation in Caribbean revolution versus the lack of recognition they continue to receive

This Spot of Ground Carol B. Duncan,2008-08-01 This Spot of Ground Spiritual Baptists in Toronto represents the first detailed exploration of an African Caribbean religion in the context of contemporary migration to Canada Toronto is home to Canadas largest black population a significant portion of which comprises Caribbean migrants and their descendants This book shows how the development of the Spiritual Baptist religion in Canada has been shaped by the immigration experiences of church members the large majority of whom are women and it examines the ways in which religious experiences have mediated the members experiences of migration and everyday life in Canada This Spot of Ground is based on a critical ethnography with in depth interviews and participant observations of church services and other ritual activities including baptism and pilgrimage and field research in Trinidad that explores the transnational linkages with Spiritual Baptists there The book addresses theoretical and methodological issues also including the development of perspectives suitable for examining diasporic African religious and cultural expressions characterized by transnational migration an emphasis on oral tradition as the repository of cultural history and linguistic and cultural hybridity This Spot of Ground contributes new information to the study of Caribbean religion and culture in the diaspora providing a detailed examination of the significance of religion in the immigration process and identity and community formations of Caribbean people in Canada
