Bookkeeping Basics Lisa M. Venkatrathnam, Debra L Ruegg, 2003-03-15 Bookkeeping Basics No trained bookkeeper on staff No problem Many nonprofits don t have a trained bookkeeper on staff This crucial function goes to whoever has the time and the willingness to do it Lack of accounting training or background is not only frustrating for the individual but also potentially risky for the nonprofit Bookkeeping Basics will enable you to successfully meet the basic bookkeeping requirements of your organization It gives you the knowledge and skills to track the financial activity of your nonprofit in a way that brings order out of chaos safeguards the organization s assets and provides useful information for making sound decisions Clearly defines what you most need to know In plain language the book explains concepts and processes you most need to know including single versus double entry bookkeeping cash versus accrual basis accounting posting financial transactions keeping a paper trail of source documents preparing a trial balance creating financial statements establishing internal controls preparing for your annual audit and closing out your fiscal year Step by step instructions clear definitions of terms and detailed examples help you put concepts into actions Reproducible forms include an accounts payable register accounts receivable register accounts receivable register general ledger financial summary form grant tracking form internal controls activity flow chart and an audit preparation checklist Bottom line If you re the bookkeeper for your nonprofit by choice or default this book is for you The Cash Flow Solution Richard S. Linzer,Anna O. Linzer,2006-10-25 Many nonprofits rely on conventional methods of making and managing money from donations to cash reserves endowments and capital building campaigns in hopes of securing financial stability for the future Yet these acquired funds often remain tantalizingly out of reach for day to day operations the balance sheet may look good but the actual cash available is often surprisingly low In order to achieve their missions nonprofits need to fundamentally change the way they think about money Richard and Anna Linzer introduce a groundbreaking approach to nonprofit financial management based on cash flow and the use of credit that gives nonprofits the money they need when they need it while ensuring the long term financial well being of the organization Their revolutionary and effective financial model is explained in clear and understandable terms for decision makers in both large and small nonprofit organizations The Linzers are revolutionaries in the nonprofit financial world and leaders should take notice Martha J Perry associate executive director McCune Foundation A great book for any board member of a nonprofit organization Michael Schlesinger attorney author lecturer and commentator in the field of taxation Nonprofits now have a choice Muddle along from crisis to crisis or follow the advice in this excellent innovative book Irene Y Namkung past board president the Western Arts Alliance Northwest Folklife and Oregon Potters Guild It s heresy but it works The Cash Flow Solution presents solid steps to financial sanity in the nonprofit boardroom James A Kolb West Sound Academy From time to time a book makes so much sense you wonder why someone did not write it a long time ago Richard and Anna Linzer s book The Cash Flow Solution is such a book The principles are as fundamental and rock solid as they are innovative Applying their suggestions could help many troubled organizations survive and thrive More importantly the Linzers insight could lead many nonprofits in coming closer to fulfilling their potential to deal with the many needs of our society Mike Pedretti Artistic Director and President Movement Theatre International The Art of Governance Nancy Roche,Jaan Whitehead,2013-08-18 The Art of Governance is an essential guide for trustees in the performing arts and for the artists managers and community leaders who work with them This book provides the larger context in which trustees govern the art artists history institutions and national policies of the performing arts and also explores more practical issues such as board development planning finance and fundraising A wide range of distinguished artists trustees managers and consultants have contributed articles covering everything from The Art of Theater to Understanding Financial Statements An invaluable tool for building an enlightened and inspired board this resource above all recognizes the need of trustees in the performing arts to find a balance between the uncertainty of artistic creativity and the need for fiscal stability Editors Nancy Roche and Jaan Whitehead have served on the boards and staff of numerous theater organizations Nancy Roche has been a trustee of CENTER STAGE in Baltimore since 1987 serving as president of the board for seven years and as interim managing director for one year She has been a consultant on governance for the National Arts Stabilization now National Arts Strategies a councilor of the Maryland State Arts Commission from 1992-1999 and has twice served as lay panelist for the NEA. In the summer of 2000 she participated as a theater trustee in the National Critics Institute at the Eugene O'Neill Theater Center in Waterford, Connecticut, returning in the following summer as a founding member of their week-long Trustees Program. She is a founding member of the National Council for the American Theatre and serves as a trustee and treasurer of the board of Theatre Communications Group. In addition, she serves on the boards of the Roland Park Country School, the Institute for Christian Jewish Studies, and the Baltimore School for the Arts. She is a graduate of Dominican University and received an MA in teaching and an LLA both from The Johns Hopkins University. Jaan Whitehead currently chairs the board of the SITI Company, an ensemble theater in New York led by Anne Bogart. She has served on the boards of The Acting Company, Arena Stage, Living Stage, and The Whole Theatre Company, where her particular interests have been board development and institutional change. She has also been a trustee of Theatre Communications Group and the National Cultural Alliance, an arts advocacy group in Washington, and is a founding member of the National Council for the American Theatre. In addition to her work as a trustee, she has been executive director of Theatre for a New Audience in New York and Development Director of CENTERSTAGE in Baltimore. Ms. Whitehead graduated from Wellesley College, holds an MA in economics from the University of Michigan, and early in her career worked as an economist for private industry and the Federal Reserve Board. She received her PhD in political theory from Princeton in 1988. She taught at Georgetown University for several years but, as her involvement in theater deepened, she made the arts her main work while retaining her interests in economic and political theory. Drawing on this background, she has recently been writing a series of essays on the challenges facing the arts in a commercial society.

Small Nonprofits: Strategies for Fundraising Success Mary Louise Mussoline, 1998-12-14. As advocates for the poor, builders of community, and guardians of the environment, small organizations are big players in the work of the not-for-profit world. This volume of New Directions for Philanthropic Fundraising was written to help people within these small organizations approach fundraising in the same way they approach their programs: with pride, determination, and passion. The authors consider areas of special importance for small organizations: diversity of income sources, strength of the board of directors, involvement of diverse constituencies in fundraising issues that all small nonprofits face today. They also discuss more focused topics important to small organizations, such as the conversion of special events donors to annual fund donors and the important human aspects of working with volunteers. This is the 20th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Philanthropic Fundraising.
