Branson Memories:

Transforming Pastoral Leadership Quentin P. Kinnison, 2016-05-20 For many congregations change creates discomfort Pastoral leaders are often expected to be experts who manage and control realities beyond their expertise experience and ability That expectation a product of modern approaches to leadership views the pastor as responsible for maintaining the status quo Transforming Pastoral Leadership responds to this context by challenging readers to rediscover key biblical themes around the shepherding metaphor as well as key theological themes steeped in our historical faith narratives Readers are challenged to consider the origins of our dominant leadership practices and to reconsider how Christ's preeminence as the leader of his church requires us to reconstruct leadership practices that are faithful to his preeminence To assist congregations Transforming Pastoral Leadership suggests two processes that might help congregations discern God's missional promptings as they move forward into God's future and experience conflict as opportunities for transformation

How the Body of Christ Talks C. Christopher Smith, 2019-04-16 In today's highly charged social and political environment we often don't know how to talk well with others especially with people whose backgrounds differ from our own C. Christopher Smith coauthor of the critically acclaimed and influential Slow Church addresses why conversation has become such a challenge in the 21st century and argues that it is perhaps the most needed spiritual practice of our individualistic age Smith likens practicing conversation to the working of the human body Bodies are wondrous symphonies of diverse intricate parts striving for our health and our health suffers when these parts fail to converse effectively Likewise we must learn to converse effectively with those who differ from us in the body of Christ so we can embody Christ together in the world In community we learn what it means to belong to others and to a story that is bigger than ourselves Smith shows how church communities can be training hubs where we learn to talk with and listen to one another with kindness and compassion The book explores how churches can initiate and sustain conversation offers advice for working through seasons of conflict suggests spiritual practices and dispositions that can foster conversation and features stories from several congregations that are learning to practice conversation

Hope Greg Liston, Sarah Penwarden, 2025-10-28 In a world where the toxicity of the contemporary Western church is regularly and often justifiably highlighted this volume explores how churches can be places of hope God's plan is that churches become communities of transformation and restoration both for individuals and for wider society Gathering the voices of practitioners biblical scholars systematic theologians practical theologians and counsellors this work offers a multidisciplinary exploration of how guided by the Spirit of God we can positively create and sustain flourishing churches which nurture both individuals and the wider community Branson Memories, 1993

A Powerful Presence Andy Fitzgerald, 2024-12-16 Bethel Church Redding California is one of the most influential churches in America The charismatic megachurch has garnered attention through its widely popular Bethel Music books conferences and senior pastor Bill Johnson Bethel is also known for its instances of supernatural power Divine healings ecstatic manifestations miracles and prophetic words are common at the church As such Bethel has garnered its share of critics and controversies Evangelical pastor Andy Fitzgerald DMin conducted a four month ethnographic study of Bethel Church In the first extensive study of the church Dr Fitzgerald observed and participated daily in Bethel s community sat under its teaching and interviewed its members and leaders to see how the church understands and practices supernatural power In A Powerful Presence Fitzgerald analyzes Bethel culturally and theologically by interacting with thinkers such as Charles Taylor Jürgen Moltmann and James Dunn Dr Fitzgerald brings his insights to bear for an appreciative but not uncritical look at Bethel Church This book offers new learnings and opens new pathways for churches and leaders to regain their apostolic footing in today s modern world Hope Greg Liston, Sarah Penwarden, 2025-10-28 In a world where the toxicity of the contemporary Western church is regularly and often justifiably highlighted this volume explores how churches can be places of hope God s plan is that churches become communities of transformation and restoration both for individuals and for wider society Gathering the voices of practitioners biblical scholars systematic theologians practical theologians and counsellors this work offers a multidisciplinary exploration of how guided by the Spirit of God we can positively create and sustain flourishing churches which nurture both individuals and the wider community God's Tapestry William M. Kondrath, 2008-04-14 Our differences are our greatest blessings and our greatest challenges maintains William Kondrath Episcopal priest and seminary professor Theologically and ecologically differences foster life and growth but discord within denominations and congregations frequently have to do with the inability of individuals and groups to deeply understand and value differences In God s Tapestry Kondrath shows us how to embrace our multiculturalism our differences of race culture gender age theology language sexual identity and so forth He does this by exploring differences on four levels personal interpersonal institutional and cultural He also demonstrates a threefold process for becoming multicultural recognizing our differences understanding those differences and their significance and consequences and valuing or celebrating those differences While ministry is the work of the faith community not only ordained or professional staff it is critical that leaders learn the art and skill of recognizing understanding and valuing differences Then the congregations and agencies they serve having learned and practiced the art and skill of celebrating differences can be the yeast that brings this awareness of God s diverse blessings to the wider world Blessed and Beautiful Lisa Washington Lamb, 2014-06-05 Colleges can do it Hospitals can do it Workplaces can do it Why does the church in the United States still find it so difficult to integrate across racial and ethnic divides In Blessed and Beautiful Lisa Lamb trains her sights on one often overlooked facet of forging life together the magnetic power of shared memories Those common narratives bind ethnic groups together and keep them apart This book explores the sociological and theological dimensions of social memory and considers the particularly powerful tool preaching could be for shaping individuals who are willing to risk remembering their people s past in church and for shaping churches capable of hearing those stories While keenly aware of the complex dynamics involved Lamb ultimately gives pastors and other church leaders a glimmer of hope as they seek to build reconciled communities of faith

Dancing in the Dark, Revised Edition Graham Buxton, 2016-11-08 Christians are often tempted to encapsulate God in their own little boxes as if God could be tied down to our finite way of thinking But we can neither domesticate nor fully understand God for theology has a lot to do with coming to terms with the mystery of God This revised edition of Dancing in the Dark shaped as in the first edition by the two overarching themes of God as Trinity and a theology of participation embraces the notion of mystery in presenting a compelling vision of seeing all things finally united within the inner life of God As we engage in Christian ministry we are summoned to participate as grace filled faith communities in the triune God's immeasurably loving and healing work in the world leading those who are in darkness into an awareness of the God who imparts life in all its glorious abundance that which is so and a journey into the mystery of that which is to come The liberating ministry of the gospel is both a declaration and an invitation an invitation to the dance

Slow Church C. Christopher Smith, John Pattison, 2014-05-06 In today's fast food world Christianity can seem outdated or archaic The temptation becomes to pick up the pace and play the game But Chris Smith and John Pattison invites us to leave franchise faith behind and enter the kingdom of God where people know each other well and love one another as Christ loves the church
