

Guide to Acquiring a Company

1

Establish a motive for the acquisition

- Diversification
- Efficiency
- Leverage
- R&D/patents
- Scale
- Scope
- Transformation

2

Create search criteria

- How much are you willing to spend to acquire a business?
- Which markets should it be operating in?
- What kind of client base should it possess?
- What kind of synergies are you looking for, if any?

3

Do research

It enables you to compare what's on the market and the range of prices being sought for businesses in your space.

4

Do outreach

If you opt to contact a business you've found you'll speak with their banker first.

5

Setup intro meetings

Meet the owner of the target business and hopefully, build a rapport.

6

Make an offer

7

Conduct due diligence

Detailed investigation of the company and its financial situation

8

Close the deal

Closing the deal will require some assistance from your lawyer to put together the documents.
