Activism Direct Action Hacktivism And The Future Of Society:

Activism! Tim Jordan, 2002 From Europe to the USA from Australia to South America from the hard left to the extreme right Tim Jordan introduces us to the partisan citizens who want to change the world The Routledge Companion to Alternative and Community Media Chris Atton, 2015-05-15 The Routledge Companion to Alternative and Community Media provides an authoritative and comprehensive examination of the diverse forms practices and philosophies of alternative and community media across the world The volume offers a multiplicity of perspectives to examine the reasons why alternative and community media arise how they develop in particular ways and in particular places and how they can enrich our understanding of the broader media landscape and its place in society The 50 chapters present a range of theoretical and methodological positions and arguments to demonstrate the dynamic challenging and innovative thinking around the subject locating media theory and practice within the broader concerns of democracy citizenship social exclusion race class and gender In addition to research from the UK the US Canada Europe and Australia the Companion also includes studies from Colombia Haiti India South Korea and Zimbabwe enabling international comparisons to be made and also allowing for the problematisation of traditional often Western approaches to media studies By considering media practices across a range of cultures and communities this collection is an ideal companion to the key issues and debates within alternative and community media

Tactical Media Rita Raley, 2009 Tactical media describes interventionist media art practices that engage and critique the dominant political and economic order Rather than taking to the streets and staging spectacular protests the practitioners of tactical media engage in an aesthetic politics of disruption intervention and education In Tactical Media Rita Raley provides a critical exploration of the new media art activism that has emerged out of and in direct response to postindustrialism and neoliberal globalization

The Power of Global Community Media Linda K. Fuller, 2016-04-30 Drawing on both theoretical and practical case studies this collection moves from developing attempts at local media to case studies and on to cyber examples The contributors all distinguished international communications scholars present a range of perspectives on the ever burgeoning area of grassroots local media Artistic Practices, Participation and Politics Hugo Cruz, 2025-08-29 I know of no other empirical study of community arts that is so widespread and executed so thoroughly Eugene Van Erven Utrecht University Netherlands The book focuses on participatory artistic practices with South of Europe and Latin America as the central geographical context for analysis The book aims to redefine and explore key concepts such as community art practices civic and political participation and cultural and artistic involvement Through in depth case studies the work re examines the elements of community artistic practices and the quality of artistic and cultural participation particularly in the context of Brazilian and Portuguese theatre groups

Creating a Better World Rupert Taylor, 2004 Takes an interdisciplinary approach to interpreting global civil society Contributors are some of the leading theoreticians in the field A sound handbook for activism The term global civil society has become a catchphrase of our times

But efforts to define and interpret what global civil society actually is have led to ambiguity and dispute. This major work of scholarship and advocacy pierces through the generalizations and debates. It presents cogent examples of groups within civil society from the Seattle and Genoa protesters to transnational grassroots movements such as Slum Shack Dwellers International that are creatively meeting the challenges and opportunities of an increasingly interconnected world. The contributors offer clarity and the hope that another world is possible one in which civil society's global networks can effectively create a free fair and just global order. Scholars, students and anyone interested in understanding new forces influencing contemporary world politics will want to have this book on their shelves.

Taking Aim at the Arms Trade

Doctor Anna Stavrianakis, 2013-07-18. Taking Aim at The Arms Trade. NGOs, Global Civil Society and the World Military Order takes a critical look at the ways in which NGOs portray the arms trade as a problem of international politics and the strategies they use to effect change. NGOs have been pivotal in bringing the suffering caused by the arms trade to public attention, documenting its negative impact on human rights, conflict, security and development around the world and pushing for measures to control or eradicate the trade. Overall, however, their activity has helped sideline debate on Northern military predominance while facilitating intervention in the South based on liberal understandings of the arms trade, conflict, development and human rights. They thus contribute to the perpetuation of a hierarchical world military order and the construction of the South as a site of Northern benevolence and intervention. Stavrianakis exposes the tensions inherent in NGOs' engagement with the arms trade and argues for a re-examination of dominant assumptions about NGOs as global civil society actors.

Youth-Led Social Movements and Peacebuilding in Africa

Ibrahim Bangura, 2022-05-23. This book critically examines and analyses the active role played by youth-led social movements in pushing for change and promoting peacebuilding in Africa and their long-term impacts on society. Africa's history is characterised by youth movements. The continent's youth populations played pivotal roles in the campaign against colonialism and ever since independence, Africa's youth have been at the center of social mobilisation. Most recently, social media has contributed significantly to a further rise in youth-led social movements. However, the impact of youth voices is often marginalised by patriarchal and gerontocratic approaches to governance, denying them the place, voice and recognition that they deserve. Drawing on empirical evidence from across the continent, this book analyses the drivers and long-term impacts of youth-led social movements on politics in African societies, especially in the area of peacebuilding. The book draws attention to the innovative ways in which young people continue to seek to re-engineer social space and challenge contexts that deny them their voice, place, recognition and identity. This book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of social movement studies, youth studies, peace and conflict studies, history, political sciences, social justice and African studies. Living Spirit of Revolt

Žiga Vodovnik, 2013-11-01. The great contribution of Žiga Vodovnik is that his writing rescues anarchism from its dogma its rigidity its isolation from the majority of the human race He reveals the natural anarchism of our everyday lives and in doing so enlarges the possibilities for a truly human society in which our imaginations our compassion can have full play Howard Zinn author of A People s History of the United States from the Introduction At the end of the nineteenth century the network of anarchist collectives represented the first ever global antisystemic movement and the very center of revolutionary tumult In this groundbreaking and magisterial work iga Vodovnik establishes that anarchism today is not only the most revolutionary current but for the first time in history the only one left According to the author many contemporary theoretical reflections on anarchism marginalize or neglect to mention the relevance of the anarchy of everyday life Given this myopic mis conception of its essence we are still searching for anarchism in places where the chances of actually finding it are the smallest

When Technocultures Collide Gary Genosko, 2013-10-25 When Technocultures Collide provides rich and diverse studies of collision courses between technologically inspired subcultures and the corporate and governmental entities they seek to undermine The adventures and exploits of computer hackers phone phreaks urban explorers calculator and computer collectors CrackBerry users whistle blowers Yippies zinsters roulette cheats chess geeks and a range of losers and tinkerers feature prominently in this volume Gary Genosko analyzes these practices for their remarkable diversity and their innovation and leaps of imagination He assesses the results of a number of operations including the Canadian stories of Mafiaboy Jeff Chapman of Infiltration and BlackBerry users The author provides critical accounts of highly specialized attributes such as the prospects of deterritorialized computer mice and big toe computing the role of electrical grid hacks in urban technopolitics and whether info addiction and depression contribute to tactical resistance Beyond resistance however the goal of this work is to find examples of technocultural autonomy in the minor and marginal cultural productions of small cultures ethico poetic diversions and sustainable withdrawals with genuine therapeutic potential to surpass accumulation debt and competition The dangers and joys of these struggles for autonomy are underlined in studies of RIM s BlackBerry and Julian Assange s WikiLeaks website
