1543 and All That G. Freeland, Anthony Corones, 2013-11-09 Australia and New Zealand boast an active community of scholars working in the field of history philosophy and social studies of science Australasian Studies in History and Philosophy of Science aims to provide a distinctive publication of essays on a connected outlet for their work Each volume comprises a group theme edited by an Australian or a New Zealander with special expertise in that particular area In each volume a majority of the contributors is from Australia or New Zealand Contributions from elsewhere are by no means ruled out however and are indeed actively encouraged wherever appropriate to the balance of the volume in question Earlier volumes in the series have been welcomed for significantly advancing the discussion of the topics they have dealt with I believe that the present volume will be greeted equally enthusiastically by readers in many parts of the world R W Horne General Editor Australasian Studies in History and Philosophy of Science ix LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS Frontispiece Andreas Vesalius Sixth Plate of the Muscles woodcut designed by Jan Steven van Kalker from De humani corporis fabrica Basel 1543 Photo Scientific Illustration repr by kind permission of the University of New South Wales Library In GUY FREELAND Introduction In Praise of Tothing Stones Fig 1 Michael Esson Vesalian Interpretation 3 1992 Repr by kind permission of the Artist Fig 2 Reliefs University of Padua The Song Index of the Enoch Pratt Free Library Ellen Luchinsky, 2020-12-23 The Song Index features over 150 000 citations that lead users to over 2 100 song books spanning more than a century from the 1880s to the 1990s The songs cited represent a multitude of musical practices cultures and traditions ranging from ethnic to regional from foreign to American representing every type of song popular folk children s political comic advertising protest patriotic military and classical as well as hymns spirituals ballads arias choral symphonies and other larger works This comprehensive volume also includes a bibliography of the books indexed an index of sources from which the songs originated and an alphabetical composer index The Register of the Goldsmiths' Company Vol III : Deeds and Documents, C. 1190 to C. 1666 Lisa Jefferson, 2022-05-20 Vol 3 of 3 volume set provides translations of the Goldsmiths Company Register of Deeds with full explicatory annotation and with a clear introduction to both the manuscript and the legal texts contained in it The Worshipful Company of Goldsmiths commonly known as the Goldsmiths Company is one of the twelve Great Livery Companies of the City of London This three volume edition provides translations of the company s Register of Deeds with full explicatory annotation and with a clear introduction to both the manuscript and the legal texts contained within Additionally the volumes contain detailed name and subject indexes The company s Register of Deeds has never been fully utilised by historians but it contains a record copy made from the fifteenth century onwards of the original deeds of the company s acquisitions of property from the reign of King Richard I to the seventeenth century These deeds reveal much about the precise location of properties and their inhabitants Wills often appearing in the Register help to piece together a social history of the time Charitable purposes were often the reason for monies or property bequeathed to the

Goldsmiths sometimes of an educational nature or of almsgiving to the poor or for the training and support of young goldsmiths and silversmiths Many documents also concern women either acting solely in their own name or jointly with a husband sometimes also appearing as daughters or sisters providing evidence regarding their legal position during the medieval and early modern period The editing and translation of these documents from Latin and French into modern day English will be of great use to historians interested in the buildings of medieval and Tudor London and their use as personal or business premises But beyond these obvious confines these so far hidden sources will help to rewrite a social legal and economic history of medieval and Tudor London

God's Book of Works R. J. Berry, 2003-04-01 R J Berry writes as a professional biologist and as a Christian believer He contends that the interplay of science and faith requires continual re examination in the light of scientific developments with the consequent need to review religious assumptions To quote from his Preface Where science and faith meet they must be congruent if they are not both the science and the religion ought to be examined Religion cannot drive the content of science nor can science properly determine the nature of religion R J Berry s treatment differs from traditional work in science and religion in that he intentionally and explicitly extends his exploration of the implications of religious faith for contemporary science to environmental conservation or Creation care Professor Berry s expertise in this area is considerable as an ecologist who has long been involved in developing environmental ethics both locally and internationally He argues that the contribution of religious belief to environmental science is highly important not only in theoretical terms but also in practice This book does not assume extensive specialised background knowledge It will be of immense interest to anyone concerned with environmental problems scientists and religious believers exploring contemporary applications of religious faith
