The Disappointed Bridge Richard Pine, 2014-06-02 This original study is the first major critical appraisal of Ireland's post colonial experience in relation to that of other emergent nations The parallels between Ireland India Latin America Africa and Europe establish bridges in literary and musical contexts which offer a unique insight into independence and freedom and the ways in which they are articulated by emergent nations They explore the master servant relationship the functions of narrative and the concepts of nationalism map making exile schizophrenia hybridity magical realism and disillusion The author offers many incisive answers to the question What happens to an emerging nation after it has emerged

Brian Friel Geraldine Higgins, 2010 This book offers a critical examination of Friel's dramatic writing both within the context of Irish storytelling and considering his crucial position as a writer from the north of Ireland negotiating between the responsibilities of art and the demands of violent conflict A Companion to Modern British and Irish Drama, 1880 - 2005

Mary Luckhurst, 2008-04-15 This wide ranging Companion to Modern British and Irish Drama offers challenging analyses of a range of plays in their political contexts It explores the cultural social economic and institutional agendas that readers need to engage with in order to appreciate modern theatre in all its complexity An authoritative guide to modern British and Irish drama Engages with theoretical discourses challenging a canon that has privileged London as well as white English males and realism Topics covered include national regional and fringe theatres post colonial stages and multiculturalism feminist and queer theatres sex and consumerism technology and globalisation representations of war terrorism and trauma

Ritual Remembering, 2021-11-15 Most of the essays in Ritual Remembering History Myth and Politics in Anglo Irish Drama in part or in whole frequently allude or directly concern themselves with the dramatic representation of the opposition or the collusion of myth and history and the uses and abuses of both Equally they celebrate and critically analyse the politics of the social conscience and social consciousness which pervades Irish drama in its rituals of forgetfulness and memory Perhaps myth is above all to be understood as the conscience and consciousness of history and politics is the projection of that myth into present social action on the hustings nowadays more frequently the television hustings at the ballot box in writing and on the stage Most of the articles in this volume revolve around these gravely portentous and ambivalent themes which nobody who is as much concerned with Anglo Irish relations as with Anglo Irish literature can disregard or evade
