A Descriptive Dictionary Bislama To English:

A New Bislama Dictionary Terry Crowley, 2003 A new Bislama dictionary is a substantially updated version of the first edition which reflects the ever changing vocabulary of Bislama the national language of Vanuatu Back cover A descriptive dictionary William Greenwood Camden, 1977 A Descriptive Dictionary Bill Camden, 1977 Bislama Reference Grammar Terry Crowley, 2004-05-31 Bislama is the national language of Vanuatu the world's most linguistically diverse nation with at least 80 actively spoken Oceanic languages used by about 200 000 people Bislama began as a plantation pidgin based on English in the nineteenth century but it has since developed into a unique language with a grammar and vocabulary very different from English It is one of very few national languages for which there is no readily available reference grammar This book aims to fill this gap by providing an extensive account of the grammar of Bislama as it is used by ordinary Ni Vanuatu It does not therefore aim to describe any kind of artificial written norm but sets out to capture a range of different kinds of ways that Ni Vanuatu will say things in various contexts both written and spoken formal and informal The thrust of this volume is to show that Bislama has a grammar an unfamiliar concept for those educated in Vanuatu It also shows that Bislama is a language of considerable complexity which will come as a surprise to many of its users who have been taught to view their language as somehow simple and even deficient Contrastive Sociolinguistics Marlis Hellinger, Ulrich Ammon, 1996 CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE SOCIOLOGY OF LANGUAGE brings to students researchers and practitioners in all of the social and language related sciences carefully selected book length publications dealing with sociolinguistic theory methods findings and applications It approaches the study of language in society in its broadest sense as a truly international and interdisciplinary field in which various approaches theoretical and empirical supplement and complement each other The series invites the attention of linguists language teachers of all interests sociologists political scientists anthropologists historians etc to the development of the sociology of language Multi-disciplinary Lexicography Olga M. Karpova, Faina I. Kartashkova, 2014-08-11 The present book is based on presentations made during the IXth International School on Lexicography Multi disciplinary Lexicography Traditions and Challenges of the XXIst Century at Ivanovo State University September 8 10 2011 and continues a series of collective monographs devoted to the theoretical and practical problems of lexicography published by Cambridge Scholars Publishing in 2007 2009 and 2010 The scope of topics discussed in four parts Dictionary as a Cross road of Language and Culture Dictionary Use and Dictionary Criticism Terminology and LSP Studies and Projects of New Dictionaries is rather wide and focuses on burning problems of European Russian and world lexicography as well as on projects of new dictionaries This book will be of interest to theoreticians practitioners and students of linguistic faculties More Englishes Manfred Görlach, 1995-10-05 This collection of eight papers is a continuation of Manfred Görlach's previous collection Englishes with the author's most influential writings in the field of varieties of English Language Description, History and Development Jeff Siegel, John Lynch, Diana

Eades, 2007-03-14 This volume in memory of Terry Crowley covers a wide range of languages Australian Oceanic Pidgins and Creoles and varieties of English Part I Linguistic Description and Typology includes chapters on topics such as complex predicates and verb serialization noun incorporation possessive classifiers diphthongs accent patterns modals in Australian English and directional terms in atoll based languages Part II Historical Linguistics and Linguistic History ranges from the reconstruction of Australian languages to reflexes of Proto Oceanic to the lexicon of early Melanesian Pidgin Part III Language Development and Linguistic Applications comprises studies of lexicography language in education and language endangerment and language revival spanning the Pacific from South Australia and New Zealand to Melanesia and on to Colombia The volume will whet the appetite of anyone interested in the latest linguistic research in this richly multilingual part of the globe

Germanic Standardizations Ana Deumert, Wim Vandenburg, 2003-01-01 This volume presents a comparative socio historical study of the Germanic standard languages Afrikaans Danish Dutch English Faroese Frisian German Icelandic Low German Luxemburgish Norwegian Scots Swedish Yiddish as well as the Caribbean and Pacific Creole languages Each of the 16 original chapters systematically discusses central aspects of the standardization process including dialect selection codification elaboration and diffusion of the standard norm across the speech community as well as incipient processes of de standardization and re standardization The strongly comparative orientation of the contributions allow for the identification of broad similarities as well as intriguing differences across a wide range of historically and socially diverse language histories Two chapters by the editors provide an overview of the theoretical background and rationale of comparative standardization research and outline directions for further research in the area The volume will be of interest to language historians as well as sociolinguists in general

Melanesian Pidgin and Tok Pisin John W.M. Verhaar, S.J., 1990-01-01 The First International Conference on Pidgins and Creoles in Melanesia was planned mainly for Tok Pisin but no predetermined theme s had been proposed to the participants Nevertheless in this collection of papers several principal themes stand out One is that of a revived interest in substratology both for Tok Pisin and for Bislama Another is what in fact amounts to a change in perspective from universalism as supposedly competitive with the substratological orientation towards a generalist approach to typology which reduces the apparent polarity from a theoretical point of view A third is the pervasive interest of contributors in wider language issues in the social and political life of Papua New Guinea These interests go back to the linguistic and social experience of the participants most of whom have a long record of living among the people whose languages they have studied on a day to day basis and to the relative remoteness of their inspiration from the more theoretical and perhaps ultimately untestable issues which surround the universalist approach and its claims for a bioprogram foundation for language
