SON OF MAN Henry Carrier, 2022-05-04 During his tenure as a college professor Dr Carrier taught political science and philosophy courses and travelled to over 30 different nations in Europe and East Asia Now an author who has retired to North Carolina's Outer Banks where he enjoys surf fishing and outrageous sunsets Carrier also has delved into reading non fiction He particularly admires authors Flannery O'Connor Anton Chekhov and James Joyce whose short stories often deal with religious themes Fascinated with the universality of all religions Carrier is a committed but non denominational Christian who has been influenced by Catholic Protestant and Islamic worship His encounters with Hinduism and Buddhism from his time as a Fulbright Scholar to India also have left a lasting impression Readers of the Son of Man can glean the essence of Carrier's conclusions from a quote that Swiss Catholic priest author and theologian Hans Kung

submitted at the request of Life magazine editors about the meaning of life Kung's quote and those from other world leaders were later published in the book The Meaning of Life Friend and the Editors of Life 1991 p 105 Kung's quote references this Ultimate and First Reality or what Carrier prefers to call the Divine Creator I have become convinced that in trusting this Ultimate and First Reality I am also trusting that there is meaning to my life and death and to those of other human beings even if this all embracing meaning in the face of an appalling amount of foolishness in the world will often remain hidden In short I trust despite everything that with my life and your life ultimately something meaningful good and reasonable is intended From this perspective you might say that self realization is the meaning of life We are here to realize ourselves in order to become true human beings But I add from my own experience My own self realization must fail if it disregards the self realization of others My realization and others realizations are meaningful only if they are borne and determined by something that is more than ourselves Self realization rooted in the reality of God Himself This is promised us by the Judaic Christian Islamic tradition Shouldn't this suffice Hans Kung President of the Foundation for a Global Ethic former Director of the Institute for Ecumenical Research Tübingen Germany Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1995-02 American Book Publishing Record, 1995 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1995 The Dialogues of the Dead of the Early German Enlightenment Riccarda Suitner, 2021-12-13 For the first time this book reconstructs the fascinating story of a series of anonymous dialogues of the dead published in Germany in the early eighteenth century The texts stage fictional debates between some of the most famous thinkers of the seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries such as Descartes Leibniz Thomasius and Bekker The dialogues were originally published as cheap prints and very few copies now survive until today the links between these texts and the very existence of this textual corpus have remained unknown Starting from the little reliable information available Riccarda Suitner conducts an exciting investigation of the authors production illustrations circulation and plagiarism of these texts in the intellectual world of the early eighteenth century proposing a new image of the German Enlightenment The German edition of this book was awarded the prestigious Geisteswissenschaften international prize Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998
