Martey, 2009-11-01 Two major strands of theology have developed in Africa inculturation and liberation each in response to different needs Emmanuel Martey's African Theology provides a clear scholarly examination of these two basic approaches solidly based on Martey's understanding of contemporary theology and his firsthand knowledge of Africa Martey first examines the historical background of each of these theological developments especially relating to cultural and political movements enveloping the continent in the 1970s In sub Saharan Africa struggles for independence from colonizers have resulted in inculturation theology The defining aspect of this theology is that it pushes its roots firmly in African culture and traditions In South Africa on the other hand Black Africans struggling against the oppressive systems of apartheid have turned to liberation theology Martey shows how the real hope for African theology lies in the dialectical encounter between these two approaches and in their potential for convergence The two foci of liberation and inculturation Martey says are not contradictory but complement each other African Theology concludes by challenging African theologians to weld together the praxis of inculturation with that of liberation in order to achieve an integrative vision for the continent U.S. Relations with South Africa: An Annotated Bibliography Y G-M Lulat,1990-12-31 A comprehensive two volume annotated bibliography of books and monographs journal articles government documents documents of nongovernmental organizations and substantive magazine and newspaper articles published since the late nineteenth century Annotated entries contain a short abstract a table of contents and information on reviews Each volume contains an author and subject index and a periodical is included in Volume Two Topics covered include US Foreign Policy Southern Africa in US South African Relations Nuclear Technology and Other Sectors of Trade and Economic Relations Education Scientific and Cultural Exchanges African Americans and South Africa Divestment Disinvestment and Sanctions Divestment Disinvestment and Sanctions Comparative Studies This two volume work is part of a larger project that included publication of a nearly 700 page book titled United States Relations with South Africa A Critical Overview from the Colonial Period to the Present which is a critical overview of relations between the United States and South Africa going nearly as far back as the very beginning of their inception as permanent European colonial intrusions and it not only gives attention to the importance of contributions from nonofficial actors in shaping official relations but also considers the impact of the geopolitical location of South Africa within southern Africa where the presence of other nations particularly Angola Mozambique Namibia and Zimbabwe looms large The Political Economy of Namibia Tore Linné Eriksen, Richard Moorsom, 1989 Research institutes and documentation centres
