Edwards,Lisa S. Villadsen,2020-10-23 The Rhetoric of Official Apologies Critical Essays focuses on the many challenges associated with performing a speech act on behalf of a collective and the concomitant issues of rhetorically tackling the multiple political social and philosophical issues at stake when a collective issues an official apology to a group of victims Contributors address questions of whether collective remorse is possible or credible how official apologies can be evaluated who can issue apologies on behalf of whom and whether there are certain kinds of wrongdoing that simply can t be addressed in the form of an official apology Collectively the book speaks to the relevance of conceptualizing official apologies more broadly as serving multiple rhetorical purposes that span ceremonial and political genres and represent a potentially powerful form of collective self reflection necessary for political and social advancement Bibliography of Semiotics, 1975-1985,1986-01-01 This bibliography of semiotic studies covering the years 1975 1985 impressively reveals the world wide intensification in the field During this decade national semiotic societies have been founded allover the world a great number of international national and local semiotic conferences have taken place the number of periodicals and book series devoted to semiotics has increased as has the number of books and dissertations in the field This bibliography is the result of a dedicated effort to approach complete coverage New Zealand Ways of Speaking English Allan Bell,Janet Holmes,1990 This is a collection of research papers on the sociolinguistics and pragmatics of New Zealand English The book provides information on the structure and use of NZ English in a range of different social and regional contexts Topics covered include the question of a New Zealand pidgin change in attitudes to NZ English and differences in New Zealand women s and men s speech Politeness in Language Richard J. Watts,Sachiko Ide,Konrad Ehlich,2019-10-08 This collection of 13 original papers focuses on the phenomenon of politeness in language It presents the most important problems in developing a theory of linguistic politeness which must deal with the crucial differences between lay notions of politeness in different cultures and the term politeness as a concept within a theory of linguistic politeness The universal validity of the term itself is called into question as are models such as those developed by Brown and Levinson Lakoff and Leech New approaches are suggested In addition to this theoretical discussion an empirical section presents a number of case studies and research projects in linguistic politeness These show what has been achieved within current models and what still remains to be done in particular with reference to cross cultural studies in politeness and differences between a Western and a non Western approach to the subject An Encyclopedia of Language N.E. Collinge,2002-09-11 Examines how language works accounting for its nature its use its study and its history Two comprehensive indexes of Topics and Technical Terms and

Names Carefully illustrated to explain key points in the text This rich repository of information on all aspects of language is a must for all libraries in higher education schools and larger public libraries Library Review Each article has an excellent bibliography In addition there are comprehensive indexes of topics and technical terms and names Highly recommended for all college and general public libraries Choice This important book is in many ways a state of the art survey of current conceptions of and approaches to language with generous references to more detailed sources Each chapter has a good bibliography Language International A comprehensive guide with very thorough bibliographies Collinge s Encyclopedia is recommended to academic libraries Reference Reviews The bibliographies are an invaluable aid the editor is to be congratulated for having done an excellent job there are virtually no areas of language and linguistics that do not get a look in somewhere and there is good signposting in the text itself Nigel Vincent Times Higher Education Supplement Power in Family Discourse Richard J.
