development of linguistic theory both in Germany and internationally The series will continue to deliver new impulses for research and maintain the central insight of linguistics that progress can only be made in acquiring new knowledge about human languages both synchronically and diachronically by closely combining empirical and theoretical analyses To this end we invite submission of high quality linguistic studies from all the central areas of general linguistics and the linguistics of individual languages which address topical questions discuss new data and advance the development of linguistic theory

Scientist of the Strange Paul Bently, 2002-06 The present study uncovers the psychical stakes and dramas involved in Redgrove's practice and in turn relates these stakes and dramas to the marked element of cultural critique to be found in Redgrove's nonfiction but which is virtually absent from the poems BOOK JACKET British Poetry from the 1950s to the 1990s Gary Day, Brian Docherty, 1997-07-13 This collection looks at the developments in British poetry from the Movement until the present The introduction not only provides a context for these changes but also argues that poetry criticism has been debilitated by the quest for political respectability a trend which can only be reversed by reconsidering the idea of tradition The essays themselves focus on general themes or individual authors Written in a clear and informed manner they provoke the reader into a fresh awareness of the nature of poetry and its relation to society The Desperado Age , The Mudlark Poems ; & Grand Buveur Peter Redgrove, 1986 A Snake's Tail Full of Ants John Lane, 1996 There is evidence of a sea change in Western consciousness over the last three or four decades of the 20th century which implies a fundamental rejection of the arts of humanism the tradition of art for the elite art cut off from society from nature and from the sacred added as Eric Gill once said like a sauce to otherwise unpalatable fish cannot serve the needs of our future society John Lane both celebrates the power and challenges the defect of this 500 year old tradition invariably claimed to be the finest that has ever existed He questions whether the institution of the self directed professional artist was a great step forward in the story of self realization or whether it was on the contrary a dehumanising aberration in the history of humankind Challenging and illuminating this book looks forward to a time of revitalized aesthetic activity when creative expression is not lofty professionalized and unapproachable but closely interwoven with the activities of daily life
