Apocalypse The Revelation Of St John:

The Revelation of Saint John Ian Boxall, 2009 Replacing George B Caird's earlier volume fellow Oxford scholar Ian Boxall's new edition in this popular series offers a clear and lucid study of St John's apocalypse Arising out of a critical awareness of the historical and theological issues surrounding the interpretation of Revelation Boxall's exposition opens with an enlightening introduction to the first century context of this difficult book Now available in paperback The Apocalypse, Or, Revelation of Saint John, Translated; with Notes, Critical and Explanatory John Chappel Woodhouse, 1805 The Revelation of St. John, 1976 Jean Duvet transferred the Revelations of St John onto the metal plate in a manner so relentless and uncompromising that for centuries his work was dismissed as inept and crude Today he is often cited as a unique predecessor to William Blake and we are at last prepared to appreciate the emotional power of his crowded violent compositions This edition is published with the complete Authorized Version of the Revelation of St John from the back cover

The Revelation of St. John the Divine The Divine, 2012-08-29 The Book of Revelation is the final book of the New Testament The title came into usage from the first word of the book in Koine Greek apokalypsis meaning unveiling or revelation the author himself not having provided a title It is also known as the Book of the Revelation of Saint John the Divine or the Apocalypse of John both in reference to its author or the Book of the Revelation of Jesus Christ in reference to its opening line or simply Revelation often erroneously called Revelations in contrast to the singular in the original Koine or the Apocalypse The word apocalypse is also used for other works of a similar nature in the literary genre of apocalyptic literature Such literature is marked by distinctive literary features particularly prediction of future events and accounts of visionary experiences or journeys to heaven often involving vivid symbolism The Book of Revelation is the only apocalyptic document in the New Testament canon though there are short apocalyptic passages in various places in the Gospels and the Epistles Commentary on the Apocalypse of St. John Pierre Prigent, 2001 In this work published 20 years after his first commentary on the Apocalypse Pierre Prigent deals once again with the Apocalypse but this time with the numerous exegetical historical and sociological studies which were published during the last 20 years and are significant for research in this field in particular for methodology and Jewish literature Pierre Prigent focuses on the historical and the religious contexts In the historical context he describes how in the first century it was revealed to the churches in Asia Minor that the highest reality of living things and objects was given its justification through the work of God in Jesus Christ This revelation shook the history of the church and of the world In the religious context the author deals with the eschatological revelations against the backdrop of Judaism Faced with the mass of information which needed to be taken into account he resolved to proceed in two directions Everything that concerns the exegesis of specific texts has been introduced at the appropriate places in the commentary which has resulted in a great number of additions and corrections and considerable elimination Often the work of biblical scholars has taken a more synthetic turn Their conclusions which are then of interest for the interpretation of several passages or even of the entire book would be out of place in the flow of the commentary. It so happens that the questions addressed are often of primary importance and sometimes are the object of hot debate. Therefore the author decided to give an overview of the current state of research on the questions leading to such conclusions to give an adequate account of these synthetic analyses.

The Apocalypse Edward White Benson, 1900 The Apocalypse of St. John Emil Bock, 1957 An Explanation of the Apocalypse, Or Revelation of St. John Alexander Smyth, 1825 The Apocalypse, 1982 The Apocalypse; Or, The Revelation of St. John the Divine ... Joseph Jones (M.A., Incumbent of Repton, Derbyshire.), 1852
