Appetites And Identities An Introduction To Social Anthropology Of Western Europe:

Appetites and Identities Sara Delamont,2002-09-11 This book offers a clear inviting and fascinating introduction to the social anthropology of Western Europe illustrating the rich diversity of dialects cultures and everyday lives of its peoples

Cultural Anthropology JoAnn Jacoby,Josephine Kibbee,2007-05-30 The latest edition of a major literature guide provides citations and informative annotations on a wide range of reference sources including manuals bibliographies indexes databases literature surveys and reviews dissertations book reviews conference proceedings awards and employment and grant sources The organization closely follows that of the 1st edition with some much needed additions relating to online resources and new areas of interest within the field such as forensic anthropology environmental anthropology and Lesbian Bisexual Gay and Transgendered Anthropology Separate sections focus on individual subfields as well as emerging concerns such as ethical issues in cultural heritage preservation For academic and research library collections as well as faculty members in anthropology area studies and intercultural studies

Entering the New Theological Space John Reader,2016-05-06 This book presents theological reflections on the changing nature of church mission and Christian identity within a theology of blurred encounter a physical social political and spiritual space where once solid hierarchies and patterns are giving way to more fluid and in many ways unsettling exchanges The issues raised and dynamics explored apply to all socially produced space thus tending to blur that most fundamental of theological categories namely urban vs rural theology Engaging in a sharper way with some of the helpful but inevitably broad brush conclusions raised by recent church based reports Mission shaped Church Faithful Cities the authors examine some of the practical and theological implications of this research for the issue of effective management and therefore church leadership generally Speaking to practitioners in the field of practical theology as well as those engaged in theological and ministerial training key voices encompass dimensions of power and conflict and identify some of the present and future opportunities and challenges to church faith based engagement and leadership arising from blurred encounters Contributors practitioners and theorists cover a wide spectrum of interdisciplinary professional contexts and academic denominational interests Contributors include John Atherton John Reader Helen Cameron Martyn Percy Malcolm Brown Karen Lord Clare McBeath and Margaret Goodall

Myth and materiality in a woman's world Lynn Abrams,2013-07-19 Shetland has a history unique in Europe for over the past two centuries it was a place where women dominated the family economy and the cultural imagination Women ran households and crofts without men They maintained families and communities because men were absent And they constructed in their minds an identity of themselves as liberated long before organised feminism was invented And yet Shetland is a place which was made by the most masculine of societies those of the Picts Scots and above all the Vikings and its contemporary identity still draws on the heroic exploits and sagas of medieval Norsemen This book examines how against this tradition Shetland became a female place and offers answers as to how in this most isolated island community the inhabitants transgressed and reversed their traditional gender roles Reconstructing this woman's world from fragments of cultural experience captured in written and oral sources this book will appeal to scholars in the fields of social and cultural history social anthropology gender and women's studies Frontiers of the European Union M. Anderson, E.

Bort, 2001-03-30 Based on original research this book is a unique attempt at a general assessment of EU frontiers Internal frontiers are losing some of their key functions but there are many responses to the new situation as a case study of French frontiers abundantly illustrates An examination of the EU external frontier shows that the EU is acquiring some state-like features but the eastern frontier provides abundant evidence of the external frontier's complexity The authors conclude that the increasing openness of national frontiers will continue but their effective abolition whether by European integration or through globalization is improbable Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union Teresa Rees, 2006-06-19

Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union provides a critical overview and evaluation of the potential role of the EU in perpetuating or breaking down gender segregation in the EU labour force Teresa Rees draws upon feminist theoretical frameworks in assessing Equal Opportunities policies and the role of training in the labour market The same economic imperatives which put women's training on the agenda have heightened interest in designing training which attracts women into mainstream provision Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union addresses the urgent need for academics education and training providers as well as policy makers to be aware of current thinking at EU level on training policy A European Geography Tim Unwin, 2017-09-29 A European Geography provides a geographical interpretation and exposition of the whole of Europe Beginning with a historical and environmental introduction the text covers the cultural identity political structure economic organisation and social context of Europe examining the complex issues that are shaping the characteristics and meaning of contemporary Europe More than fifty contributors are drawn from Europe and North America contributing a wealth of research expertise in their specialist subject areas Detailed case studies provide empirical examples of the broader research themes examined A European Geography is written for undergraduate students taking courses on Europe Regional Geography European Studies and European Integration It will provide valuable reading for anyone interested in developing a detailed understanding of the processes shaping contemporary Europe Food, Social Change and Identity Cynthia Chou, Susanne Kerner, 2021-12-14 Unlike food publications that have been more organized along regional or disciplinary lines this edited volume is distinctive in that it brings together anthropologists archaeologists area study specialists linguists and food policy administrators to explore the following questions What kinds of changes in food and foodways are happening What triggers change and how are the changes impacting identity politics In terms of scope and organization this book offers a vast historical extent ranging from the 5th mill BCE to the present day In addition it presents case studies from across the world including Asia the Pacific the Middle East Europe and America Finally this collection of essays presents diverse perspectives and differing methodologies It is an accessible introduction to the study of food social change and identity Balkan Border Crossings Vasilēs G. Nitsiakos, 2011 This volume is the second Annual of the Konitsa Summer School in Anthropology Ethnography and Comparative Folklore of the Balkans containing the proceedings of two years 2007 and 2008 It includes papers written by members of the teaching staff papers delivered as lectures or especially prepared for the Annual papers written by students based principally on their fieldwork exercise in Greece and Albania presentations of ongoing PhD theses and finally the syllabi of the subjects of instruction Language Learners as Ethnographers Celia Roberts, 2001 This book looks at the role of cultural studies and intercultural communication in language learning The book argues that learners who have an opportunity to stay in the target language country can be trained to do an ethnographic project while abroad Borrowing from anthropologists the idea of cultural fieldwork and writing culture language learners develop their linguistic and cultural competence through the study of a local group This book combines a theoretical overview of language and cultural practices with a description of ethnographic approaches and materials specifically designed for language learners
