American Studies in Eastern Africa Henry Indangasi, Henry Mutoro, Macharia Munene, 1993 American Studies Abroad United States Advisory Commission on International Educational and Cultural Affairs, Walter Johnson, 1963 The United States and Africa Macharia Munene, J. D. Olewe Nyunya, Korwa Gombe Adar, 1995 The African Studies Companion Hans Zell, 2021-11-15 Published in dual print and electronic formats this is a new edition of a much acclaimed reference source that brings together a wide range of sources of information in the African studies field covering both print and electronic sources It evaluates the best online resources the major general reference tools in print format current bibliographies and indexing services biographical cartographic statistical and economic resources as well as film and video resources Additionally there are separate sections on African studies library collections and repositories throughout the world a directory of over 250 African studies journals listings of news sources profiles of publishers active in the African studies field dealers and distributors of African studies materials African studies societies and associations major African and international organizations donor agencies and foundations awards and prizes in African studies electronic mailing lists and discussion forums and more The Black Man's North and East Africa Yosef Ben-Jochannan, George E. Simmonds, 2005 Few of Dr Ben s books are written with co authors The Black Man s North and East Africa is an exception Written with one of his early colleagues George E Simmonds this work attacks the racist manipulation of African and Black history by educators and authorities on Africa Defenders of the Africans right to tell their own story the authors insist that Black people must take responsibility for their own history Until African Black people are willing and do write their own experience past and present we will continue being slaves mentally physically and spiritually to Caucasian and Semitic racism and religious bigotry

State Crises, Globalisation and National Movements in North-East Africa Asafa Jalata, 2004-08-02 By identifying the critical central contradictions that are built into the politics of the Horn of Africa this book demonstrates that the crises of the Horn states stem from their political behaviour and structural forces such as internal social forces and global forces that have become involved on the sides of these states without requiring accountability the rule of law or the implementation of at least limited democracy The contributors provide a deep understanding of structural and conjunctural forces that have interacted in the processes of state power the role of intervention of global powers and the consequent failure to build state as a public domain The book also enriches our social scientific knowledge that is essential to develop pragmatic policy measures to address these problems University Centers of Foreign Affairs Research: a Selective Directory United States. Department of State. Office of External Research, 1968 Presented at the October 22 1981 meeting of the Great Lakes Section of the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers held in conjunction with the centennial of naval architecture and marine engineering at the University of Michigan Religion and Health Care in East Africa Robert B Lloyd, Melissa Haussman, Patrick James, 2019-03-13 What social factors contribute to the tragic state of health care in Africa Focusing on

East African societies this book is the first to investigate what role religion plays in health care in African cultures Taking into account the geopolitical and economic environments of the region the authors examine the roles played by individual and group beliefs government policies and pressure from the Millennium Development Goals in affecting health outcomes Informed by existing related studies and on the ground interviews with individuals and organizations in Uganda Mozambique and Ethiopia this interdisciplinary book will form an invaluable resource for scholars seeking to better understand the links between society multi level state instruments and health care in East Africa Bulletin MLSA University of Michigan. College of Literature, Science, and the Arts,2007 Afro-Latin American Studies Alejandro de la Fuente,George Reid Andrews,2018-04-26 Alejandro de la Fuente and George Reid Andrews offer the first systematic book length survey of humanities and social science scholarship on the exciting field of Afro Latin American studies Organized by topic these essays synthesize and present the current state of knowledge on a broad variety of topics including Afro Latin American music religions literature art history political thought social movements legal history environmental history and ideologies of racial inclusion This volume connects the region s long history of slavery to the major political social cultural and economic developments of the last two centuries Written by leading scholars in each of those topics the volume provides an introduction to the field of Afro Latin American studies that is not available from any other source and reflects the disciplinary and thematic richness of this emerging field
