Australian Catholics:

Rome in Australia: The Papacy and Conflict in the Australian Catholic Missions, 1834-1884 (set 2 volumes)

Christopher Dowd, 2008-07-30 The founding of the Catholic missions in Australia coincided with the defining drift of power and prestige within the nineteenth century Church This was a period of chronic dissension among Australia's Catholic communities powerfully drawn by the ultramontane impulse and political manoeuvring to refer their problems to the Pope Roman bureaucratic control exercised through the Sacred Congregation de Propaganda Fide was the single most important factor in the resolution of these problems and consequently in the determinative shaping of the colonial Australian Church Based on extensive archival research this study explores issues of process politics and personality in the formulation of papal policy towards a part of the world that could not be more distant from Rome

Journal of the Australian Catholic Historical Society. Volume 39 (2018) ATF Press, 2018-12-31 This volume focuses on Catholic Church history in Australia by looking at certain figures Archdeacon John McEencroe Lwesi Harding Bishop Chales Henry Davis Cardonal Gilroy as well as themes Catholic Social Justice and parliamentary politics humanae vitae and Tridentine clericalism and the emergence of Catholic education offices

Catholic Values and Australian Realities James Franklin, 2006 Australian Catholics have made a unique contribution to the nation At its centre is a solid grasp of the objectivity of ethics Persons or societies cannot choose their own values because what is right and wrong is founded in the way things are In his wide ranging book on Australian Catholic thought and action James Franklin author of the much praised polemical history of Australian philosophy Corrupting the Youth shows how core Catholic values have played out in the issues where Catholics have challenged their host society in debates on land rights immigration and values in schools and in combats with Freemasons Protestants and Communists

Australian Multiculturalism Lois E. Foster, 1988 This book is a documentary history and critique of the concept and policy of multiculturalism in Australia for the period 1970 to 1986 The book brings together for the first time a range of documents charting the emergence and implementation of multiculturalism across the main institutions of Australian society and culture The institutions covered in the book are education health and welfare the Church law media the realm of work and as a summarising chapter human rights and race and community relations in Australian society in the 1980s The wide range of documents and the critical thematic introduction and contexting make the book ideal as a teaching text for students in many disciplines and an invaluable research source

Minorities and Reconstructive Coalitions Willie Gin, 2017-07-06 Through comparative and historical analysis the book shows that reconstructive coalitions such as labor and pan Christian moral movements affect minority incorporation and bring Catholics and Protestants together under new identities and significantly improving Catholic standing It provides overviews of the history of Catholics in Australia Canada and the United States while at the same time advancing unique arguments about the impact of coalitions on minority politics The World's Christians Douglas Jacobsen,2011-03-21 Written by an award winning author this well organized and comprehensive introduction to global Christianity illuminates the many ways the world s Christians live their faith today Covers the entire globe Africa Asia and Latin America as well as Europe North America and the Pacific Provides impartial in depth descriptions of the world s four major Christian traditions Orthodox Catholic Protestant and Pentecostal Charismatic Utilizes the best available sources to produce an up to date profile of demographic trends in the Christian population Blends history sociology anthropology and theology to create a rich multi layered analysis of the world Christian movement Features clear maps and 4 color illustrations throughout the volume

Secular Conversions Damon Mayrl,2016-08-30 Why does secularization proceed differently in otherwise similar countries Secular Conversions demonstrates that the institutional structure of the state is a key factor shaping the course of secularization Drawing upon detailed historical analysis of religious education policy in the United States and Australia Damon Mayrl details how administrative structures legal procedures and electoral systems have shaped political opportunities and even helped create constituencies for secular policies In so doing he also shows how a decentralized readily accessible American state acts as an engine for religious conflict encouraging religious differences to spill into law and politics at every turn This book provides a vivid picture of how political conflicts interacted with the state over the long span of American and Australian history to shape religion s role in public life Ultimately it reveals that taken for granted political structures have powerfully shaped the fate of religion in modern societies APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service ,
