The ISBN is 9781877074486 The Story of Australia's People Vol. I Geoffrey Blainey, 2015-02-25. The vast continent of Australia was settled in two main streams far apart in time and origin. The first came ashore some 50,000 years ago when the islands of Australia, Tasmania and New Guinea were one. The second began to arrive from Europe at the end of the eighteenth century. Each had to come to terms with the land they found and each had to make sense of the other. The long Aboriginal occupation of Australia witnessed spectacular changes. The rising of the seas isolated the continent and preserved a nomadic way of life while agriculture was revolutionising other parts of the world. Over millennia the Aboriginal people mastered the land's climates, seasons and resources. Traditional Aboriginal life came under threat the moment Europeans crossed the world to plant a new society in an unknown land. That land in turn rewarded, tricked, tantalised and often defeated the new arrivals. The meeting of the two cultures is one of the most difficult and complex meetings in recorded history. In this book Professor Geoffrey Blainey returns first to the subject of his celebrated works on Australian history: Triumph of the Nomads 1975 and A Land Half Won 1980, retelling the story of our history up until 1850 in light of the latest research. He has changed his view about vital aspects of the Indigenous and early British history of this land and looked at other aspects for the first time. Compelling, groundbreaking and brilliantly readable. The Story of Australia's People: The Rise and Fall of Ancient Australia is the first instalment of an ambitious two-part work and the culmination of the lifework of Australia's most prolific and wide-ranging historian. Absorbing and important, the first volume of an ambitious work on the peopling of this continent from its human origins to our own day, bold, rich, wise, authoritative and questioning. Peter Stanley. The Age. The Story of Australia's People: The Rise and Fall of Ancient Australia situates pre-invasion Aboriginal society as a triumphant culture with much to celebrate. John Maynard. The Age. Blainey has produced a book that all Australians could and dare I say it should read. I very much look forward to the next instalment of his bold, rich, wise, authoritative and questioning trilogy. Canberra Times. This is the real story of Australia at last. Courier Mail. Blainey delivers a brilliant narrative on Australia's settlement. Australian Geographic. Australia's Religious Communities Philip J. Hughes, Margaret Fraser, Stephen Breck Reid, 2012. An essential reference on Australia's religious groups with the latest information from the Australian 2011 Census. Church leaders and everyone interested in the changing profile of Australia's profile will find this invaluable. This book describes the changing profile and participation in each religious group. Shaping Australia's Spirituality Philip Hughes, Stephen Reid, Claire Pickering, 2010. Original Australians Josephine Flood, 2006-08-01. Charts Aboriginal history from earliest prehistory to today and details their survival through the millennia to the stolen children issue. Lewis's Medical-Surgical Nursing 6th Australia and New Zealand Edition Diane

AUSTRALIA-INDONESIA CONNECTION Jemma Purdey, 2021-12-12 In early 2020 Australia and Indonesia entered an historic high point in their bilateral relationship. The President of Indonesia, Joko Widodo, visited Canberra where he addressed the Joint Houses of Parliament and meetings were held to put the final touches on the Indonesia-Australia Comprehensive Partnership Agreement (IA-CEPA). Since then, tested by the COVID-19 pandemic crisis, the strength and depth of the Australia-Indonesia relationship between governments, also business and community organisations and individuals, has come more clearly into focus. The people-to-people connectivity that has driven the Australia-Indonesia relationship is being reimagined in creative digital ways and in the face of a global economic crisis, IA-CEPA is a bright spot for potential growth in trade and exchange. In response to these trends and opportunities for deepening engagement, the chapters in this volume represent research undertaken by Indonesians and Australians working together as part of a collaborative research program initiated by the Australia-Indonesia Centre with a focus on thematic areas: Youth and Education and Business and Tourism.

Digital Futures and Connectivity Collectively the research offers insights into what is driving Indonesia's future with a focus on its young people those aged 17-35 years are the largest single demographic group in Indonesia digital technologies and an increasingly mobile middle class What is shaping the outlook of young Indonesians on the world and their relations with their regional neighbours including Australia How are Indonesians using digital technologies for social and commercial exchange in ways that are making them increasingly open to international connections What kinds of experiences are Indonesia's increasingly mobile middle classes looking for when they travel overseas for education or leisure What does this mean in terms of opportunities for greater connectivity and exchange within the Australia Indonesia relationship after the crisis has subsided and beyond
