Australian Escape Stories:

Australian Escape Stories Jane Holth, 1976 Untitled World War Book Colin Burgess, 2020-08 A collection of stories about the most dangerous aspect of the Australian prisoner of war experience escape Here is all the adventure suspense and courage of ordinary Australians who defied their captors men willing to risk death in order to overcome almost impossible odds in the loneliest war of all the fight for the right to be free Australia's Greatest Escapes Colin Burgess, 2020-07-22 Australia's greatest escape stories from two world wars Australia's Greatest Escapes is a collection of stories about the most hazardous aspect of the prisoner of war experience escape Here is all the adventure suspense and courage of ordinary Australians who defied their captors men who tunneled to freedom crawled through stinking drains or clawed a passage beneath barbed wire in a desperate attempt to flee captivity They were willing to risk the odds and even death in the loneliest war of all the fight to be free Each possessed in spades the noble qualities of boldness resourcefulness cunning determination and mateship we have come to admire about our Australian service men and women under adversity Featuring stories of Australian POWs from all theatres of war including one who fled a German work camp during World War I another involved in a mass tunnel escape from a notorious Italian camp and an airman who brazenly attempted to steal a German fighter and fly it back to England We also re live the tragic saga of the Sandakan death marches in which six Australian escapers became the only survivors from 2000 POWs and follow the perilous journeys to freedom undertaken by Australian infantrymen following the appalling massacre of their fellow soldiers on the Japanese held island of Ambon Migrants, Television and Australian Stories Kate Darian-Smith, Sue Turnbull, Sukhmani Khorana, Kyle Harvey, 2025-05-26 This book examines the intertwined histories of television and migration in Australia told from the perspectives of migrants who worked in the screen industry and the many more who watched television Their stories demonstrate how Australia's growing cultural diversity has challenged conventional representations of Australianness on television and how ongoing advocacy has supported the growing inclusivity of multiple narratives and diverse experiences on screen Migrants from many backgrounds were instrumental in the establishment in 1956 of Australian television working behind and in front of the cameras as producers directors writers technicians and actors From early broadcasting to the digital present portrayals of cultural differences have often been shaped by appropriation ethnic stereotyping and racism This has occurred across a range of formats from drama to comedy to news and reality shows Many in the industry have responded with resilience and creative adaptation as they have increasingly taken control of the ways that migrant stories are told and diversity is celebrated The first comprehensive Australian study of migrants and television this book considers the ways multicultural audiences have experienced the small screen over seven decades Drawing on rich oral histories it analyses the memories of television in the work school family life and leisure of migrant communities and their broader engagements with Australian culture Research in the archives of broadcasters and production companies reveals how non Anglo Australian characters were constructed and how such portrayals have shifted This new history takes us to digital screen production and consumption today exploring how Australians of many diasporas engage with the global network of screen content in the twenty first century It is essential reading for media professionals advocates students and those interested in the intersections between media cultural diversity and the nation

Australian Perspectives on Global Air and Space Power Nicole Townsend, Kus Pandey, Jarrod Pendlebury, 2023-03-01 This book surveys historical and emerging global air and space power issues and provides a multidisciplinary understanding of the application of air and space power in the past and present while exploring potential future challenges that global air forces may face Bringing together leading and emerging academics professionals and military personnel from Australia within the field of air and space power this edited collection traces the evolution of technological innovations as well as the ethical and cultural frameworks which have informed the development of air and space power in the 20th and 21st centuries and contemplates the future It covers topics such as the insurgents use of drones the ethics of air strikes the privatisation of air power the historical trajectory of air power strategy and the sociological implications of an air force identity While many of the chapters use Australian based case studies for their analysis they have broader applicability to a global readership and several chapters examine other nations experiences including those of the United States and the United Kingdom This accessible illuminating book is an important addition to contemporary air and space power literature and will be of great interest to students and scholars of air and space power air warfare military and international history defence studies and contemporary strategic studies as well as military professionals

Stories of Australia in the Early Days Marcus Andrew Hislop Clarke, 1897 Australian Short Story Laurie Hergenhan, 2015-11-23 Henry Lawson Barbara Baynton Henry Handel Richardson Katharine Susannah Prichard Christina Stead Gavin Casey Vance Palmer Alan Marshall Marjorie Barnard Judah Waten John Morrison Peter Cowan Hal Porter Patrick White Thelma Forshaw Dal Stivens Peter Carey Murray Bail Frank Moorhouse T A G Hungerford Elizabeth Jolley Michael Wilding Olga Masters Beverley Farmer Fay Zwicky Barry Hill Gerald Murnane Archie Weller Thea Astley Helen Garner Lily Brett Susan Hampton Gail Jones In this bestselling collection the Australian short story is represented from its Bulletin beginnings to its vigorous revival in the late twentieth century

A Story of the Australian People Karl Reginald Cramp, 1927 Witnessing Australian Stories Kelly Jean Butler, 2017-07-28 This book is about how Australians have responded to stories about suffering and injustice in Australia presented in a range of public media including literature history films and television Those who have responded are both ordinary and prominent Australians politicians writers and scholars All have sought to come to terms with Australia s history by responding empathetically to stories of its marginalized citizens Drawing upon international scholarship on collective memory public history testimony and witnessing this book represents a cultural history of contemporary Australia It examines the forms of witnessing that dominated Australian public culture at the turn of the millennium Since the late 1980s witnessing has developed in Australia in response to the increasingly audible voices of indigenous peoples migrants and more recently asylum seekers As these voices became public they posed a challenge not only to scholars and politicians but also most importantly to ordinary citizens When former Prime Minister Kevin Rudd delivered his historic apology to Australia's indigenous peoples in February 2008 he performed an act of collective witnessing that affirmed the testimony and experiences of Aboriginal Australians The phenomenon of witnessing became crucial not only to the recognition and reparation of past injustices but to efforts to create a more cosmopolitan Australia in the present This is a vital addition to Transaction's critically acclaimed Memory and Narrative series Australian Made Sonia Mycak, Amit Sarwal, 2018-08-30 Australian Made is a collection of essays about the writers the readers and the texts of multicultural Australia Presenting the work of critics and scholars from both Australia and abroad this collection creates a synergy between local and international perspectives as it explores what it means for a writer or a reader to be Australian and a text to be Australian made
