Bodies Out of Bounds Jana Evans Braziel, Kathleen LeBesco, 2001-09-13 This is an exceptional collection the subject is of obvious importance yet terribly undertheorized and unexamined I know of no other work that offers what this collection provides Marcia Millman author of Such a Pretty Face Being Fat in America A valuable contribution to scholarly debates on the place of excessive bodies in contemporary culture This book promises to enrich all areas of inquiry related to the politics of bodies Carole Spitzack author of Confessing Excess Women and the Politics of Body Reduction This anthology includes a wide range of perceptive and original essays which explore and analyze the underlying ideologies that have made fat incorrect Echoing the spirit of the nineteenth century adage about children who should be neither seen nor heard some of the authors powerfully remind us that we keep bodies out of bound silenced and unseen unless of course we need to peek at the comic or grotesque Raquel Salgado Scherr co author of Face Value The Politics of Beauty Through textual analyses video film analyses television theory and literary theory this collection demonstrates the various ways in which dominant representations of fat and corpulence have been both demonized and rendered invisible This volume will be a crucial corollary to work on the tyranny of slenderness a collection of different perspectives on the fat body is sorely missing in women's studies communication and media studies Sarah Banet Weiser author of The Most Beautiful Girl in the World Beauty Pageants and National Identity

Arturo Islas Arturo Islas, 2003-04-30 Prolific poet essayist and short story writer Arturo Islas 1938 1991 is well known for his two insightful novels The Rain God and Migrant Souls His untimely death to AIDS truncated a productive and influential career that has left a yawning gap in Latino letters Islas was a dedicated thoughtful and style conscious writer who promoted a sense of responsibility to community and art for both writers and critics The quality of his commitment was matched by the example he set in delving into the esthetics and psychology of gay creativity an exploration that took him to uncompromising confrontations with his own traditional upbringing Islas has made his mark as a writer of the U S Mexico border and a leader at the forefront of exploring more social psychological and philosophical boundaries As a Chicano from El Paso as a gay Latino writer Islas surmounted many boundaries borders and established roles in this he is a standard bearer for all of Latino literature A seasoned scholar and professor in the English Department at Stanford University for most of his professional life Islas maintained an extensive collection of works records and papers The present volume is the product of another Stanford graduate Frederick Luis Aldama who combed through the Islas archive and recovered the short fiction poetry and essays on Chicano letters that Islas did not have the opportunity to publish Aldama has organized these materials and edited them so that they may be accessible and broaden the vision of Arturo Islas as writer and thinker

Narratives of Greater Mexico Héctor Calderón,2004 Once relegated to the borders of literature neither Mexican nor truly American Chicana o writers have always been in the vanguard of change articulating the multicultural ethnicities shifting identities border realities and even postmodern anxieties and hostilities that already characterize the twenty first century Indeed it is Chicana o writers very in between ness that makes them authentic spokespersons for an America that is becoming increasingly Mexican Latin American and for a Mexico that is ever more Americanized In this pioneering study H ctor Calder n looks at seven Chicana and Chicano writers whose narratives constitute what he terms an American Mexican literature Drawing on the concept of Greater Mexican culture first articulated by Am rico Paredes Calder n explores how the works of Paredes Rudolfo Anaya Tom s Rivera Oscar Zeta Acosta Cherr e Moraga Rolando Hinojosa and Sandra Cisneros derive from Mexican literary traditions and genres that reach all the way back to the colonial era His readings cover a wide span of time 1892 2001 from the invention of the Spanish Southwest in the nineteenth century to the Am rica Mexicana that is currently emerging on both sides of the border In addition to his own readings of the works Calder n also includes the writers perspectives on their place in American Mexican literature through excerpts from their personal papers and interviews correspondence and e mail exchanges he conducted with most of them

Mestizaje Rafael Pérez-Torres,2006 Focusing on the often unrecognized role race plays in expressions of Chicano culture Mestizaje is a provocative exploration of the volatility and mutability of racial identities In this important moment in Chicano studies Rafael P rez Torres reveals how the concepts and realities of race historical memory the body and community have both constrained and opened possibilities for forging new and potentially liberating multiracial identities. Informed by a broad ranging theoretical investigation of identity politics and race and incorporating feminist and queer critiques, Pérez Torres skillfully analyzes Chicano cultural production. Contextualizing the history of mestizaje, he shows how the concept of mixed race has been used to engage issues of hybridity and voice and examines the dynamics that make mestizo and mestiza identities resistant to as well as affirmative of dominant forms of power. He also addresses the role that mestizaje has played in expressive culture including the hip hop music of Cypress Hill and the vibrancy of Chicano poster art. Turning to issues of mestizaje in literary creation, Pérez Torres offers critical readings of the works of Emma Pérez, Gil Cuadros, and Sandra Cisneros among others. This book concludes with a consideration of the role that the mestizo body plays as a site of elusive or displaced knowledge. Moving beyond the oppositions nationalism versus assimilation, men versus women, Texans versus Californians that have characterized much of Chicano studies, Mestizaje synthesizes and assesses twenty five years of pathbreaking thinking to make a case for the core components, sensibilities, and concerns of the discipline. Rafael Pérez Torres is professor of English at the University of California Los Angeles. He is author of Movements in Chicano Poetry: Against Myths, Against Margins, coauthor of To Alcatraz: Death Row and Back, Memories of an East LA Outlaw, and coeditor of The Chicano Studies Reader: An Anthology of Aztlan 1970-2000.
