

A promotional image for the television series "Cold Case". The image features the five main cast members standing in a dimly lit storage room filled with metal shelving units and boxes. The lighting is cool and blue-toned. The cast members are arranged in two rows: three men in the back row and two people in the front row. The woman in the front center is looking directly at the camera with a serious expression. The men are also looking forward with neutral to serious expressions. The background shows rows of metal shelving units filled with white boxes, some of which have labels. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and professional.
