incisively comment on some of this period's most pressing ethical issues including postcolonial and racialized violence the history of slavery and segregation in America and the expansion of human consciousness The writers involved in this study include Nathaniel Mackey Erica Hunt Will Alexander Harryette Mullen and Mark McMorris The Cracks Between What We Are and What We Are Supposed to Be Harryette Mullen, 2012-08-06 The Cracks Between What We Are and What We Are Supposed to Be forms an extended consideration not only of Harryette Mullen's own work methods and interests as a poet but also of issues of central importance to African American poetry and language women's voices and the future of poetry Together these essays and interviews highlight the impulses and influences that drive Mullen's work as a poet and thinker and suggest unique possibilities for the future of poetic language and its role as an instrument of identity and power

Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States Will Alexander's Poetics Joshua Schuster, 2025-09-26 This volume brings together academic and poetic essays which focus on Will Alexander's complete oeuvre The collection explores Alexander's long career in African American avant garde poetry and sheds light on other genres of Alexander's work in addition to poetry including essays plays aphorisms novels dialogues and drawings Each contribution contextualizes Alexander's work in the many traditions and literatures his work draws from including African American poetics ecopoetics post colonial and anti colonial poetics bio and geo histories and global practices of consciousness raising and spiritual transformation among other topics The volume also includes a new interview with Alexander as well as one of his long unpublished poems Alexander's writings are multi generic and traverse many fields and states of consciousness This edited collection thus provides a deep and sustained engagement with Alexander's work surveying how it has transformed the landscape of poetics the avant garde and the individual reader The Brimstone Boat Will Alexander, 2011-10-26 Yet the voice of Will Alexander who here commemorates Lamantia in his pluperfect poem The Brimstone Boat rose hardly more than a quarter century later In this automatistically extended poem we are witness to the passage of energies from the older to the younger poet as Alexander charts Lamantia's life and writings across a Renaissance globe It is here as well that Alexander succeeds Lamantia who died in 2005 as America's greatest living surrealist poet as the new poet at the helm on the brimstone boat on a voyage of perpetual exploration ANDREW JORON The volume starts off with the 81 pages of the title poem then 14 pages for three shorter poems followed by 19 pages devoted to a glossary then 50 pages for the content of four essays and finally 3 pages of post notes On the cover the frontispiece and the end page are three works by the American surrealist Marie Wilson also included are eight pencil drawings by Will Alexander and two large photographs of Lamantia and Alexander Refractive Africa Will Alexander, 2021-11-02 Finalist for the Pulitzer Prize Winner of the California Book Award in Poetry Three kinetically distilled long poems by the singular American poet who transfigures thought into a weave of lexical magic Philip Lamantia The poet is endemic with life itself Will Alexander once said and in this searing pas de trois Refractive Africa Ballet of the Forgotten he has exemplified this vital candescence with a transpersonal amplification worthy of the Cambrian explosion This being the ballet of the forgotten he writes as diasporic witness of refracted boundary points as venom The volume s opening poem pays homage to the innovative Nigerian Yoruban author Amos Tutuola it ends with an encomium to the modernist Malagasy poet Jean Joseph Rabearivelo two writers whose luminous art suffered colonial wrath through refraction A tribute to the Congo forms the bridge and bris vole of the book the Congo as charged aural colony and primal interconnection a subliminal psychic force with a colonial and postcolonial history dominated by the Occident Will Alexander s improvisatory cosmicity pushes poetic language to the point of most resistance incantatory and swirling with magical laterality and recovery
