Bergstein, 2010 The late Frank D Bergstein served in the 29th Division of the U S Army from July 1941 until late 1945 He commanded Headquarters Company 115th Regimental Combat Team 29th Division when it landed on Omaha Beach and for the long months of combat after the invasion He wrote these memoirs in the late 1980s at the urging of his family and friends At various times in the past mostly surrounded by an attentive audience of loved ones and friends Frank would expound on his wartime experiences This compilation by him Some Reminiscences of World War II presents a few of those more poignant memories revealing observations and sometimes caustic comments he was persuaded to put in writing by his family The work was completed and typed during the period of April 10 1988 through April 8 1989 Readers are fortunate that this task was accomplished before his passing Christmas Eve 2002 The main body of Frank s work is organized into twenty four consecutive chapters that are focused on his most important memories of that time He was a warrior in battle and later as a successful businessman inventor and industrialist he remained a warrior never forgetting the lessons learned during World War II Nomads of a Desert City Barbara Seyda, 2016-12-15 You see them as faceless shapes on the median or in city parks You recognize them by their cardboard signs their bags of aluminum cans or their weathered skin But you do not know them In Nomads of a Desert City Barbara Seyda meets the gazes of our homeless neighbors and with an open heart and the eye of an accomplished photographer uncovers their compelling stories of life on the edge Byrdy is a teenager from Alaska who left a violent husband and misses the young daughter her mother now cares for Her eyes show a wisdom that belies her youth Samuel is 95 and collects cans for cash His face shows a lifetime of living outside while his eyes hint at the countless stories he could tell Lamanda worked as an accountant before an act of desperation landed her in prison Now she struggles to raise the seven children of a woman she met there Dorothy whose earliest memories are of physical and sexual abuse lives in a shelter paycheck to paycheck reciting affirmations so she may continue to grace the world with my presence They live on the streets or in shelters They are women and men young and old Native or Anglo or Black or Hispanic Their faces reflect the forces that have shaped their lives alcoholism poverty racism mental illness and abuse But like desert survivors they draw strength from some hidden reservoir Few recent studies on homelessness offer such a revealing collection of oral history narratives and compelling portraits Thirteen homeless women and men open a rare window to enrich our understanding of the complex personal struggles and triumphs of their lives Nomads of a Desert City sheds a glaring light on the shadow side of the American Dream and takes us to the crossroads of despair and hope where the human spirit survives The United Spanish War Veterans. Dept. of Michigan, 1925 I Am Abraham Jerome Charyn, 2014-01-26 Jerome Charyn's daring and memorable The New Yorker historical novel renders the inner life of our sixteenth president like never before. This unforgettable portrait of Abraham Lincoln and the Civil War effortlessly mixes humor with Shakespearean-like tragedy to create an achingly human portrait of the sixteenth president. Charyn conducts an orchestra of historical figures and fictional extras centered around a profoundly moral but troubled commander in chief whose relationship with his Ophelia-like wife and his sons Robert Willie and Tad is explored with penetrating psychological insight and the utmost compassion. Seized by melancholy and imbued with an unfaltering sense of human worth, Charyn's President Lincoln comes to vibrant three-dimensional life in a haunting portrait we have rarely seen in historical fiction.
