Dictionary of AIDS Related Terminology Jeffrey T. Huber, 1993 Includes definitions of over 1000 abbreviations and acronyms historical and medical terms key names and sources of information found in discussions of AIDS and HIV Aids to Reflection, and The Confessions of an Inquiring Spirit Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1884 HIV / AIDS, Health and the Media in China Johanna Hood, 2011-01-25 HIV AIDS is an increasingly serious problem in China with an increasing number of new cases every year As a result HIV organizations have boomed with both state and non governmental organisations responding to the threat with campaigns to increase public awareness of the disease utilising the media as the primary tool to reshape citizens understandings and views of HIV AIDS This book explores how HIV AIDS is portrayed in

China's media It argues that despite increasing education campaigns media coverage and social and academic openness towards HIV AIDS many Chinese of the majority Han ethnic group regard infection as a distant possibility believing themselves to be immune and infection a problem only for certain non Han ethnic groups with perceived lower moral standards in particular black Africans The book explores how HIV AIDS is reported analysing the language used in constructing and encoding the health narrative its subjects and ideas about the disease It demonstrates how China's media frequently employs negative events to present the most extreme possibilities of poverty danger disasters and disease with black Africa portrayed as an antiquated distant and socioculturally and politically backward place uniquely unsuitable for the containment of disease in contrast with the progressive scientifically sophisticated and morally upstanding Chinese It argues that this discourse has had the effect of distancing many Chinese from the perceived possibility of infection thus compromising the effectiveness of public health campaigns on HIV AIDs It suggests that the key to combating the spread of the disease lies in challenging the racialised narratives through which the disease is portrayed in China's media rather than simply by aiming to educate greater numbers of people
