Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled. Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes Pretext, 2001 Writing Red Charlotte Nekola, Paula Rabinowitz, 1987 This comprehensive collection of fiction poetry and reportage lays to rest the charge that feminism disappeared after 1920. Among the 36 writers are Muriel Rukeyser Margaret Walker Josephine Herbst Tillie Olsen Tess Slesinger Agnes Smedley and Meridel Le Sueur. Others will be new to readers including many working class black and white women. Throughout as Toni Morrison writes the anthology is peopled with questioning caring socially committed women writers. Library Journal says This volume excavates the stories poems and reportage of women writers whose work originally appeared in now defunct Left journals. This essential collection should inspire The Short Writings of Nelson Algren Richard F. Bales, 2022-09-15 Nelson Algren was a renowned Chicago writer known for his social commentary and his novels like The Man with the Golden Arm and A Walk on the Wild Side. Although he continues to be remembered almost exclusively for his novels this book aims to highlight the value and influence of his short form works. Before he died in 1981 Algren had amassed a genre defying body of work including short stories articles poems and book reviews. The present book features a comprehensive analysis and discussion of Algren's lost literature including everything but his novels. One of the pieces covered is a masterpiece of race relations written in 1950 more than 60 years before the galvanization of the Black Lives Matter movement. Another is a scathing poem about Algren's transatlantic love affair with Simone de Beauvoir. Both items are reprinted in the book courtesy of the Algren estate. This book also includes references to Algren's works that have yet to be studied by Algren scholars The Rise of the New York Intellectuals Terry A. Cooney, 2004-09-30 Cosmopolitan visions Terry A. Cooney traces the evolution of the Partisan Review often considered to be the most influential little magazine ever published in America during its formative years giving a lucid and dispassionate view of the magazine and its luminaries who played a leading role in shaping the public discourse of American intellectuals. Included are Lionel Trilling Philip Rahv William Phillips Dwight Macdonald F W Dupee Mary McCarthy Sidney Hook Harold Rosenberg and Delmore Schwartz among others. An excellent book which works at each level on which it operates. It succeeds as a straightforward narrative account of the Partisan Review in the 1930s and 1940s. The magazine's leading voices William Phillips Philip Rahv Dwight MacDonald Lionel Trilling and all the rest receive their due Among the themes that engage Cooney are how they dealt with modernism in culture and radicalism in politics each on its own and in combination how Jewishness played a complex and fascinating role in many of the thinkers lives and especially how cosmopolitanism best explains what the Partisan Review was all about Robert Booth Fowler Journal of American History

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003-04 Craft Class Christopher Kempf, 2022-03-15 Uncovering the hidden history of the creative writing workshop this book reveals the profound social and economic consequences involved in figurations of literary production as craft labor The Oxford Critical and Cultural History of Modernist Magazines Peter Brooker, Andrew Thacker, 2009 This volume contains 44 original essays on the role of periodicals in the United States and Canada Over 120 magazines are discussed by expert contributors completely reshaping our understanding of the construction and emergence of modernism Nelson Algren Richard F. Bales, 2024-11-07 This book addresses critical gaps in existing biographies of Nelson Algren providing new perspectives on his writing style literary contributions professional colleagues and personal life especially his relationship with Simone de Beauvoir Although Beauvoir maintained a simultaneous relationship with philosopher Jean Paul Sartre the correspondence exchanged between Beauvoir Algren and Sartre as this book discusses sheds new light on her transatlantic love affair with Algren Moreover this work challenges the assertion that Algren s writing aligns seamlessly with the New Journalism style popularized by Tom Wolfe It investigates how Algren s literary legacy might have diverged had he embraced more of the principles associated with New Journalism
