The Apocalyptic Landscapes of Ludwig Meidner Carol S. Eliel, Ludwig Meidner, Eberhard Roters, 1989 Ludwig Meidner's Berlin Judith Ann Paska, 1984 The Apocalyptic Landscapes of Ludwig Meidner Catherine Cook, 2015

Expressionism Dietmar Elger, 2002 A History of Modern Germany Since 1815 Frank Tipton, 2003-01-01 Germany continues to fascinate us into the twenty first century because unlike the history or national existence of other European states its very being has been posed as a question Why was there no unified German state until late in the nineteenth century How did Germany become an industrial power What responsibility does Germany bear for the two World Wars This accessible but authoritative study attempts to answer these and other fundamental questions through looking at the economic social political and cultural forces which have created modern Germany The 1848 revolutions ushered in an age of Realism which saw rapid economic development and the creation of the Bismarckian empire However by the early twentieth century Germany's economic expansion and position as a world power began to fracture and growing internal economic social and political contradictions led it with disastrous results into the First World War and the subsequent Weimar Republic Hitler and the Nazi movement proposed a revolution and the creation of a German style and the Second World War Holocaust is arguably the defining event of the twentieth century The Americanization of the German economy and society the economic miracle and euphoria of reunification have in recent years rapidly given way to disillusionment as the major political parties have failed to master outstanding social and environmental problems The German question Germany's place within the European Union continues to be unanswered even within an EU where it is the dominant economic power

Dynamic of Destruction Alan Kramer, 2008-11-07 On 26 August 1914 the world famous university library in the Belgian town of Louvain was looted and destroyed by German troops The international community reacted in horror Holocaust at Louvain proclaimed the Daily Mail and the behaviour of the Germans at Louvain came to be seen as the beginning of a different style of war without the rules that had governed military conflict up to that point a more total war in which enemy civilians and their entire culture were now legitimate targets Yet the destruction at Louvain was simply one symbolic moment in a wider wave of cultural destruction and mass killing that swept Europe in the era of the First World War Using a wide range of examples and eye witness accounts from across Europe at this time award winning historian Alan Kramer paints a picture of an entire continent plunging into a chilling new world of mass mobilization total warfare and the celebration of nationalist or ethnic violence often directed expressly at the enemy's civilian population Max Liebermann and International Modernism Marion Deshmukh, Françoise Forster-Hahn, Barbara Gaehtgens, 2011-05 Although Max Liebermann 1847-1935 began his career as a realist painter depicting scenes of rural labor Dutch village life and the countryside by the turn of the century his paintings had evolved into colorful images of bourgeois life and leisure that critics associated with French impressionism During a time of increasing German nationalism his paintings and cultural politics sparked numerous aesthetic and political controversies His eminent career and his reputation intersected with the dramatic and violent events of modern German history from the Empire to the Third Reich The Nazis persecution of modern and Jewish artists led to the obliteration of Liebermann from the narratives of modern art but this volume contributes to the recent wave of scholarly literature that works to recover his role and his oeuvre from an international perspective

Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-Garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020-02-27 This is a book about artistic modernism contending with the historical transfigurations of modernity As a conscientious engagement with modernity's restructuring of the lifeworld the modernist avant garde raised the stakes of this engagement to programmatic explicitness But even beyond the vanguard the global phenomenon of jazz combined somatic assault with sensory tutelage Jazz like the new technologies of modernity recalibrated sensory ratios The criterion of the new as self making also extended to names pseudonyms and heteronyms The protocols of modernism solicited a pragmatic arousal of bodily sensation as artistic resource validating an acrobatic sensibility ranging from slapstick and laughter to the pathos of bereavement Expressivity trumped representation The artwork was a diagram of perception not a mimetic rendering For artists the historical pressures of altered perception provoked new models and Ezra Pound's slogan Make It New became the generic rallying cry of renovation The paradigmatic stance of the avant garde was established by Futurism but the discovery of prehistoric art added another provocation to artists Paleolithic caves validated the spirit of all over composition unframed and dynamic Geometric abstraction Constructivism and Purism and Surrealism were all in quest of a new mythology Making it new yielded a new pathos in the sensation of radical discrepancy between futurist striving and remotest antiquity The Paleolithic cave and the USSR emitted comparable siren calls on behalf of the remote past and the desired future As such the present was suffused with the pathos of being neither but subject to both
