

The Ideal Hybrid Workplace Checklist

Transitioning to a hybrid workplace means analyzing and adjusting your current technology so that it supports both office and at-home employees. To help your workforce excel in a hybrid workplace environment, you'll need:

Meeting Room Collaboration

Optimize teamwork with technology that connects at-home and office employees. Consider simple to use displays that feature integrated video, audio and conferencing tools.

Robust Cybersecurity

Multi-layered security helps to protect shared files and devices wherever they are being used. Make sure your network is routinely checked and updated to identify vulnerabilities and prevent incidents.

The Right Hardware

With team members coming to and from the office, productivity from anywhere is dependent on their hardware setup. Consider reliable laptops and accessories built for travel as well as desktop printers for home offices.

Video and Phone Conferencing

Serving users that are no longer tethered by wires and physical locations can be complex. Simplify company-wide communication with an all-inclusive, cloud VoIP phone system with web, audio and video conferencing tools.

Virtual Technical Services Mary Beth Weber, Melissa De Fino, 2022-04-25 Prior to the COVID pandemic there was little published information to guide technical services operations on how to deal with crises and emergencies Viewed as a backroom operation by administration little thought historically has been given to how these employees might protect equipment and resources and continue to provide services that seamlessly support the rest of the library Virtual Technical Services A Handbook is the first to address emergency and crisis planning specifically for technical services The authors address how to create an emergency plan and how to prepare for an uncertain future that will undoubtedly include other threats to our health and safety We discuss how the pivot to remote work can revolutionize technical services librarianship and allow us to better serve the needs of a 21st Century library As the WFH period extended longer than anticipated libraries and other organizations realized both the challenges and benefits of working remotely WFH is about more than just doing one's job and we focus on employees as individuals with needs that include work life balance self care and the flexibility to meet life circumstances including childcare eldercare and appointments A unique feature of our book is the focus on employee well being including burnout and self care Prior to COVID 19 employee well being was typically not emphasized as part of personnel management The risks to our health and safety and being removed from the physical workplace provided the opportunity to re-examine priorities and reframe them to forge a stronger and more collaborative relationship between employers and employees Technical services personnel in particular are subject to burnout as their operations are frequently understaffed and they face competing demands of serving both libraries physical needs and supporting electronic and digital resources Management in a remote work environment has challenges that are not present in an on-site operation Communication setting expectations and documentation and training take on added significance when WFH as does accountability Our book addresses these aspects of management through a WFH lens The book also covers the return to work after a shift to remote whether it is completely on-site hybrid or some combination Normalization determining staffing levels employee accommodations and an adjustment period are discussed Since most technical services personnel have not previously had to pivot to remote on short notice and for an extended period the book addresses these issues for libraries as they make decisions about repopulating their workplaces
