Alex In Rome:

Alessandra Tessa Duder, 1991 As a member of the New Zealand swimming team fifteen year old Alex gets her first taste of independence as she faces the challenges of competition in the 1960 Olympic Games in Rome With Alex at War Rupert Clarke, 2000-03-01 As a young Irish Guards Officer in 1940 Sir Rupert Clarke became ADC to Alexander already a distinguished officer thanks to his intelligence and courage Alex had been the last senior officer to leave the Dunkirk beaches For the next 4 years the author was Alex's constant companion In this book he shares the excitement and experiences of those years Alex had Churchill's unwavering confidence protected Montgomery like no other could and was respected and loved by those who served him Children's Books from Other Countries Carl M. Tomlinson, 1998-01-15 Every child is entranced by the magic of story regardless of national boundaries Many of the most memorable childhood stories have their origins in other countries Exposing children to this multi national body of literature introduces them to the great diversity of people and cultures that populate the world at a young age enabling them to become more thoughtful and generous individuals Children's Books from Other Countries is a complete and current guide to international children's literature The concept of a bibliography of international children's literature is not new In the past many books have accomplished this task The last two decades however have not yet produced a current reference source devoted to international children's books Children's Books from Other Countries wonderfully rectifies this lack of attention An introductory essay provides an overview of the field including a discussion on the rationale of sharing international books with children a brief history of the children's literature movement related books and awards and basic information about the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY and its American branch the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY An annotated bibliography contains over 700 titles from 29 different countries printed between 1950 and 1996 All titles are available in English many have been translated and others have originated in other English speaking countries The titles are organized by genre and have been selected for their high quality They are primarily targeted for children ages 0-14 although a few outstanding young adult titles are included Winners of the Mildred Batchelder Award and the Hans Christian Andersen Medal are listed in the appendix Indexes include Author Title Index Country of Origin Index and Subject Index Affordable and readable this timely resource is certainly a must for librarians and teachers and other professionals working with children Sponsored by the United States The CAUL, a Trilogy. Part III, Good Vs. Evil James Allan Matte, 2006 Part III of this trilogy begins with the surprising discovery that James Markham has a half sister residing in San Diego California and during his fateful visit he finds himself in the middle of a robbery case that demands his involvement in freeing an innocent man from prison His unwitting exposure to the media places Markham in the cross hairs of former enemy terrorists whose several attempts on his life nearly cause his demise Nonetheless Markham survives to pursue further challenges that fate places before him while it sets the stage for his eventual confrontation as the Biblical Truth Seeker with the most powerful American politician
