Alive Poems 1971 72:

Alive: Poems 1971-72 Judith Wright, 1973 Alive Judith Wright, 1973 With Love & Fury Judith Wright, 2006 This wide range of letters reminds us of Judith Wright's deep engagement with life her love of the world and of friends and the fine fury that led her to battle so courageously on the world's behalf Australian Poetry Paul Kane, 1996-01-01 This book offers a comprehensive and original reading of Australian poetry from the colonial period to the present through the dual lenses of Romanticism and negativity Paul Kane argues that the absence of Romanticism functions as a crucial presence in the poetry of all the major Australian poets This absence or negativity is both thematic and structural and Kane's scrupulous analyses uncover important relations between Romanticism and negativity Chapters on nine individual poets explore and substantiate the theoretical claims informed by the work of contemporary critics of Romanticism and by various philosophers of negativity These chapters can serve as a series of self-contained readings of Australian poets for the use of students scholars and informed general readers Australian Poetry is unique in its sustained argument and theoretical sophistication

Denise Levertov Dana Greene, 2012-09-14 Levertov was the quintessential romantic She wanted to live vividly intensely passionately and on a grand scale Once she acclimated herself to America the dreamy lyric poetry of her early years gave way to the joy and wonder of ordinary life By the late 1960s and early 1970s however her poems began to engage the issues of her times The crystalline and luminous poetry of her last years stands as final witness to a lifetime of searching for the mystery embedded in life itself This volume represents the first attempt to set Levertov's poetry within the framework of her often tumultuous life Fighters and Singers Isobel White, Diane Barwick, Betty Meehan, 2020-07-31 The literature on Australian Aborigines is vast but much of it is strangely silent about the experiences and activities of women This collection of stories of the eventful lives and strong characters of a number of Aboriginal women offers a more intimate and personal view Their lives span a century of history in fifteen communities scattered from Cape York Peninsula Arnhem Land and East Kimberley to the Western Desert the Centre South Australia Victoria and New South Wales One of these stories is an autobiography and each of the others contains transcriptions or translations of a woman's own reminiscences with additional details given by the author Some women recall the first time they saw a European in their land others tell how Europeans had influenced their communities generations before they were born While the authors lived in Aboriginal communities in order to study some particular aspect of the society the women they describe here became their close friends companions and helpers and this book is a record of friendships formed against differences of background experiences and age Allegiance to family and familiar territory shapes the personal histories of Aborigines in ways scarcely appreciated by people reared in nuclear family households in cities The strength of family and community ties can be better understood through reading about the women who contribute so much to the maintenance of these communities Index to Australian Book Reviews, 1975 Includes entries supplied by University of Queensland Library Staff Terrible Hard Biscuits Valerie

Chapman,2020-09-02 A fine beginning for those intent on understanding the colonial past that shaped black and white Australia Richard Broome author of Aboriginal Australians Terrible Hard Biscuits introduces the main themes in the history of Aboriginal Australia the complexity of Aboriginal European relations since 1788 how Aboriginal identity and cultures survived invasion dispossession and dislocation and how indigenous Australians have survived to take their place in today's society Each essay in Terrible Hard Biscuits has been chosen for the clarity of its writing and for its depth of understanding The Aboriginal and non Aboriginal authors range across Australia's post invasion history and their accounts focus on the more traditionally oriented communities in remote areas as well as on urban and fringe dwellers For twenty years the journal Aboriginal History has attracted the best writing on Australia's Aboriginal past Each essay in Terrible Hard Biscuits was selected from this journal to provide essential reading for students of Aboriginal studies and Australian studies The chronological and geographic range of the contents will prove invaluable in surveying a crucial element of Australia's past and present
