Infantry ,2007 A Traditionalist History of the Great War, Book II Alexander Wolfheze,2021-01-27 This book analyzes the world of 1914 by combining the approaches of traditionalist hermeneutics and 20th century geopolitics The juxtaposition of these two frameworks incorporated in the principles of Sacred Geography and Sea Power allows for a Traditionalist perspective on the choices facing the Ten Great Powers on the eve of the Great War The book s multifaceted approach follows the iconoclastic culture critique method of the Traditional School that was developed by Ren Gu non Frithjof Schuon and Julius Evola it shows the pre war world as essentially different from the post war world Thus the Ten Great Power protagonists of the Great War may be understood on their own terms rather than through a backward projection of politically correct values on the existentially different human life world of 1914 Dislodging the historical materialist progress premise that underpins contemporary academic historiography this book reasserts the highest claim of the Art of History meta narrative meaning The Publishers Weekly ,2004 A Traditionalist History of the Great War, Book III Alexander Wolfheze,2025-03-13 This third volume of the series A Traditionalist History of the Great War provides an in depth reassessment of the events leading up to the outbreak of the First World War It views the systemic failure of Great Power diplomacy as the result of an increasing existential incompatibility and growing power imbalance between the Modernity aligned Triple Entente and the Tradition aligned Germanic empires The final breakdown of international diplomacy in 1914 was preceded by major crises and peripheral wars that shaped not only the alignment of the Great Powers but also the mindset of their leaders who found themselves facing historical forces beyond their control This book reconstructs the crises and wars of the pre war years as well as the military calculations of July 1914 showing how they are consistent with an overall geopolitical trajectory that inexorably led to the final show down between the forces of rising Modernity and waning Tradition
